ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships — eleven — than any other team in National Football League history. They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967). Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).

In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1967, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1968, 33-14).

Chicago's Bears rank second with nine NFL titles, followed by the Giants, Lions and Browns with four each.

The Green Bay Packer Football Team is a community owned non-profit corporation. 4,626½ shares of stock are owned by 1,800 shareholders—none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment. The Corporation is governed by 45 directors and a 7-man executive committee.

JUDGE ROBERT J. PARINS President

The presidency of Judge Robert J. Parins, now in his sixth year as chief executive of the Green Bay Packers, Inc., has been characterized by two constants, growth and change.

In the past five years, he has presided over the planning and construction of three major additions to the Packers' physical facilities and seen the corporation's assets mount from $19.5 million when he took office to nearly $33,000,000 in 1987.

The building program was launched in 1982 with construction of a 55,000-square foot indoor practice facility, followed in 1983 by remodeling and expansion of the administration building and training quarters, a project which more than doubled the size of the existing structure. In 1984, as part of a renegotiated lease with the City of Green Bay, stadium rest room facilities also were doubled and all concession stands were remodeled and modernized. In 1985, seventy-two private boxes were constructed along the east and west sides of Lambeau Field.

In 1986, the upgrading process continued with the installation of a new and more sophisticated scoreboard in 'Lambeau.'

From an organizational standpoint, Judge Parins also made a major structural change earlier this year when he named Tom Braatz, former general manager and personnel director of the Atlanta Falcons, to a new position as executive vice president of football operations.

The veteran jurist, the first full-time president in the Packers' 68-year history, formally assumed his current responsibilities on June 1, 1982, following his resignation as a Brown County circuit court judge (Branch 2 of the 8th Judicial District). He previously had been named principal executive officer at a board of directors' meeting October 11, 1981.

Only the eighth man to hold the Packer presidency since the corporation was founded in 1922, he has been a member of the team's official family since May 23, 1966, when elected to the board of directors at the annual stockholders' meeting.

Judge Parins later was elected vice president of the corporation at a board of directors' meeting August 1, 1979.

Born in Green Bay August 23, 1918, he graduated from Green Bay East High School in 1936. He later obtained a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1940 and a law degree, also from the University of Wisconsin, in 1942.

Upon graduation from law school, he worked for Employers Mutual Insurance Co. in Minneapolis from 1942 through 1944 before returning to Green Bay, in 1944, to open the practice of law in partnership with the late Meyer Cohen. In 1949, he was elected district attorney of Brown County and served one, two-year term. Elected a circuit judge in the spring of 1967, he was formally vested Jan. 2, 1968. On the bench, he earned a state-wide reputation for the fair, efficient and expeditious disposition of the cases brought before him. Although he officially retired from the bench in 1982, he continues to serve as a reserve judge on occasion.

Judge Parins and his wife, Elizabeth, have five children and 11 grandchildren.

An active sportsman he owns a stable just outside Green Bay and regularly works with his horses there. He also is an avid fisherman and shoots a respectable game of golf.

DOMINIC OLEJNICZAK Chairman of the Board

Dominic Olejniczak, who served the organization as president longer than any other man in the team's history, now is chairman of the board of Green Bay Packers, Inc. He was elected to the position by the board of directors Oct. 11, 1981.

Mr. Olejniczak ended a 24-year tenure as corporation president May 3, 1982, when Judge Robert J. Parins was elected to succeed him. A former mayor of the City of Green Bay (1945-55), he used that experience in municipal government to help guide the Packers to unprecedented corporate prosperity.

A devout Packer fan since the 1920s, when he was a pupil at St. Mary of the Angels Grade School, he first began to develop close ties with the Packers in an official capacity during the mid-1930s. Elected to the Green Bay City Council, he became involved with the team through the City of Green Bay and the Board of Education, which had jurisdiction over old City Stadium, where the Packers then played their games. He continued to work closely with the Packers while mayor and, in that position, was a prime mover in the drive to build the current stadium, Lambeau Field.

Elected to the board of directors July 10, 1950, Mr. Olejniczak subsequently moved up through the chairs, being named to the Executive Committee January 21, 1952, elected a vice president March 1, 1954, executive vice president Dec. 23, 1957, president April 28, 1958, and then chairman of the board in 1981.

"Mr. Ole" and his wife, Regina, have two sons — Thomas, a Green Bay attorney who was elected to the Packer board of directors June 2, 1986, joining his father in the 45-member directorate; and Mark, a Green Bay realtor.

BOB HARLAN Assistant to the President

Robert E. "Bob" Harlan, a member of the Packer management team for the past 16 years, has multiple and diverse responsibilities as corporate assistant to the president.

A native of Des Moines, the 50-year-old Iowan oversees the Packers' ticket office operations, public relations department, marketing, purchasing and the leasing of Lambeau Field private boxes. Front office personnel, insurance and game day entertainment also come under his jurisdiction, along with a new addition to his responsibilities, the arranging of the Packers' pre-season schedule.

Prior to 1985, he also negotiated all player contracts for 14 years. A graduate of Marquette University, where he earned a B.S. degree in journalism in 1958, Harlan had a brief tour of duty in the U.S. Army before spending a year as a general reporter for United Press-International in Milwaukee. He subsequently became sports information director at Marquette in 1959, serving six years in that capacity. He joined the St. Louis baseball Cardinals in 1965, serving as director of community relations and the speakers' bureau for two years and as director of public relations for 3½ years. He left that position to join the Packers as assistant general manager on June 1, 1971.

Bob, a devout fan of Marquette basketball as well as the Milwaukee Bucks and Brewers, is a member of the board of directors of the First Wisconsin Bank of Green Bay. He and his wife, Madeline, have three sons, Kevin, 27, sports director of radio station KCMO in Kansas City who is the play-by-play "voice" of the Kansas City Chiefs and University of Missouri basketball; Bryan, 25, who is assistant coordinator of media relations for the Chicago Bears; and Michael, 18, a Green Bay Premontre High School graduate who will be a freshman at St. Norbert College this fall.

TOM MILLER Assistant to the President

Thomas M. "Tom" Miller, who joined the organization in 1956, is dean of the Packers' front office. Currently in his 31st year of service to the club, he wears a variety of "hats" as assistant to the president for business, a position he has held since 1981. He arranges all team travel and is responsible for negotiating radio and pre-season television contracts. In addition to these duties, Miller is responsible for repair and maintenance of Lambeau Field in cooperation with the Green Bay Stadium Commission, and for the planning and construction of all additions to Packer facilities. He has been deeply involved in the latter area in the past five years, during which the Packers erected a $700,000 indoor practice facility and completed a $2,000,000 addition to the administration building, a $1,300,000 concession stands project and the private box construction, the latter completed in late summer of 1985. He also is in charge of the corporation's automobile leasing program.

The Pennsylvania native, possessor of an extensive football background, played five years of professional football the last of them for the Packers in 1946. An end, he began his National Football League career with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1942, and moved to the Redskins in 1945 before joining the Packers.

Following his retirement from football, Miller coached in the college ranks for nearly a decade, coaching football and basketball at Wilkes College (1946-50) and football, basketball and baseball at Drexel College (1950-55). He rejoined the Packers as publicity director, serving in that capacity until 1965, when the late Vince Lombardi named him assistant to the general manager. He was appointed business general manager by Bart Starr in 1975 before being named assistant to the president.

Tom and his wife, the former Beverly Rusch of Green Bay, have three children: Tom, Jr., Nancy and Sue.

TOM BRAATZ Executive Vice President of Football Operations

Tom Braatz, a veteran of 22 years' National Football League experience as a general manager, personnel director and talent scout, has taken over major and manifold responsibilities as executive vice president of football operations, a new position in the organizational structure of the Packer Corporation.

Braatz, who had been a member of the Atlanta Falcons' front office since 1965, was named to the post January 31 by Judge Robert J. Parins, Packer president.

His entry into the Packer organization is in the nature of a homecoming for the 54-year-old personnel expert, who is a native of Kenosha, WI, and a graduate of Marquette University.

His duties, in his comprehensive new role, include hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft in conjunction with the head coach, handling trades and waivers, assimilating all scouting information for the draft and trades, conducting all contract negotiations with players and scouts and serving as liaison between football operations and the president.

Judge Parins, who said he had conducted an "exhaustive search" around the league before making his decision, noted, "The one name that surfaced with everyone was Tom Braatz."

In Atlanta, Braatz' main responsibility was overseeing the draft, although he also had handled most of the club's contract negotiations in recent years. In the former role, he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons, among them William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic and Steve Bartkowski. Overall, 10 different Falcons were elected to the Pro Bowl in the past six years.

Braatz was named general manager of the Falcons in 1982 in an expansion of his duties. He subsequently was reassigned as director of college scouting following the 1985 season as the Falcons moved to streamline areas of responsibility. He was an area scout when he joined the Atlanta organization in 1965 and was appointed director of player personnel in 1969.

Assessing the Packers' future from his incoming perspective — and how long it is likely to take them to become serious contenders — Braatz says, "It depends on how many players are here now. If there's a nucleus of good players here at this time, I think in possibly two years you can turn this program into a winning program."

Tom's route to Green Bay, as well as league-wide respect as a personnel expert, was somewhat circuitous. He grew up as a Packer fan in Kenosha, where he played a key role in his high school's drives to consecutive state football championships as a junior and senior.

Braatz then went on to Marquette University in neighboring Milwaukee with the intention of becoming a dentist. "But once I got into football, that was it," said Tom, who captained the varsity as a senior.

Following graduation, he entered the Army, rising to the rank of lieutenant before leaving the service. Upon returning to civilian life, he signed on with the Washington Redskins as a defensive end, later closing out his pro career under Tom Landry with the expansion Dallas Cowboys in 1960.

After his playing days, he worked for the Ithaca Gun Co. as an arms demonstrator while living in Dallas.

Then he ran into Vince Lombardi, an encounter which was to have an indirect but pronounced impact upon his future.

That was in 1965, when the Packers were playing a pre-season game in Dallas. Rankin Smith, chairman of the board of the expansion Falcons, was in town to interview Lombardi for the team's coaching job. A friend of Smith's asked Braatz to pick up Lombardi at the airport and drive him to his hotel. Tom agreed. Smith didn't persuade Lombardi to join the Falcons but he did like Braatz enough to ask him to work as a part-time scout. Braatz agreed.

"I was just doing the guy a favor, and that's how I started in football," Tom said. "That was one of the hardest decisions I had to make, though. I loved Dallas."

Braatz and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 24, and Jon, 20.

The Green Bay Packers remain unique in professional football, both in structure and accomplishment. As an organization, they represent the only publicly-owned team in the 28-club National Football League. On the field, they have won more championships — 11 — than any other team in the NFL's 68-year history.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., a non-profit corporation, was founded in 1922 under the leadership of A. B. Turnbull, who became the organization's first president. There are 4,626½ shares of stock owned by 1,800 shareholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-man Executive Committee, selected from a 45-man board of directors. (For "The Green Bay Packer Story," turn to page 144).

Judge Robert J. Parins, eighth president of the corporation, was elected the organization's chief executive May 3, 1982.

FORREST GREGG Head Coach

A deep and continuing commitment to excellence and success have been a way of life for Forrest Gregg, a classic competitor as a player and an intense, demanding leader as a coach.

The imposing Texan, elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as soon as he became eligible, already was a legendary figure in both Packer annals and the archives of the National Football League when he became the ninth head coach in Green Bay's history December 24, 1983, agreeing to a five-year contract.

—For example, he to date is the only man in the history of the game who has made it to the Super Bowl as both a starting player (with the Green Bay Packers) and a head coach (with the Cincinnati Bengals) since the classic was originated in 1967.

—As a player, he helped the Packers win five NFL titles during a seven-year span in the 1960s, an achievement without precedent or parallel in professional football history.

It included three consecutive championships (in 1965-66-67), the only time this feat has been accomplished since the NFL's playoff system was inaugurated in 1933, and victories in Super Bowls I and II.

—In the process, he became one of the most honored performers of all time, winning all-pro honors eight times and being named to nine Pro Bowls during a distinguished, 14-year Packer career which prompted the late Vince Lombardi to say of him "Forrest Gregg, quite simply, is the finest player I have ever coached."

—He also was the most durable athlete in the team's history, playing in 187 consecutive games, a total which still stands as a Packer record.

—In 1977, his pre-eminence at his position was further documented when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He also was voted into the Packer Hall of Fame the same year.

—As a head coach, he developed the most successful team in the NFL over the 1981 and '82 seasons, a period during which his Cincinnati Bengals forged a glittering 19-6 won-lost record and qualified for Super Bowl XVI.

Both Gregg and Packer loyalists, who universally acclaimed his selection, are confident the success story will continue.

The towering SMU alumnus promised as much in taking over the head coach's office at 1265 Lombardi Avenue.

"I'm not a prophet, so I can't tell you what is going to happen... but I can tell you that I didn't take this job to field a losing football team," he said. "I took this job to field a winning football team. That will happen."

In 1986, after consecutive 8-and-8 finishes in 1984 and '85, the Packer coach became convinced that sweeping personnel changes were necessary in order to produce a winner. Following a major turnover, the Packers finished with a 4-and-12 record, in part because of injuries which shelved a strong safety Mark Murphy, cornerback Tim Lewis, linebacker John Anderson and guard Keith Uecker, among others, and in part because of inexperience occasioned by the addition of 21 newcomers over the season.

Gregg, however, had no regrets. "We knew that we would pay a price for what we did," he acknowledged, "but we just felt like it was very necessary that it be done (and) and I feel at this point that we're way ahead of the game."

"I think this team can be a great deal better in 1987, just from the standpoint of experience itself. That's something you can't just wish for. You've got to invest in time, and we invested in that time... I think you'll see a big return on our investment."

The 53-year-old Gregg left Green Bay as a player following the 1970 season, ending a distinguished Packer career which had begun in 1956 when then Head Coach Lisle Blackbourn made the Southern Methodist University captain Green Bay's selection in the second round of the NFL draft.

Subsequently persuaded by Tom Landry to play a 15th year, he joined the Dallas Cowboys in 1971 for a final season, capped by Super Bowl V, before going into coaching as an assistant on the San Diego Chargers' staff in 1972.

Leaving San Diego after the 1973 season, he moved to Cleveland, where he became offensive line coach in 1974. Just one year later, he was named head coach of the Browns by Art Modell. After a 3-11 rebuilding season in that role in 1975, Gregg turned the Cleveland franchise around in dramatic fashion the following year, maneuvering the Browns to a 9-5 record and earning "Coach of the Year" honors in the process.

His 1977 Browns won five of their first seven games to forge into contention for AFC Central Division honors. Injuries then struck, however, and they lost six of their last seven games. Gregg resigned with one game remaining in the season.

Out of football in 1978, he signed on as head coach of the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts in 1979, compiling a 5-11 record with a young and inexperienced team.

That stint set the stage for a return to the NFL in 1980 as head coach of a Cincinnati team which had struggled to back-to-back 4-12 seasons in 1978 and '79.

In just two years, the purposeful Gregg had the Bengals in the Super Bowl. After improving the record to 6-10 in 1980, he directed them to an impressive 12-4 regular season record the following year, two playoff victories and a berth in Super Bowl XVI against the 49ers.

This achievement brought him a host of honors. He was chosen coach-of-the-year by the Associated Press, United Press International and the Professional Football Writers Association of America.

Refusing to permit the distractions of an eight-week player strike to disrupt his team, Gregg followed that Super Bowl achievement by leading the Bengals to a 7-2 record in 1982 and a second consecutive playoff appearance.

In 1983, he may have done the finest coaching job of his career. After two starters were suspended for the first four games by Commissioner Pete Rozelle for using drugs and two others announced their signing with the United States Football League for future delivery, his team got off to a rocky, 0-6 start, but he rallied the Bengals to win seven of their last ten games — a remarkable comeback by any measurement.

A man who brings the same intensity to coaching that he did to the playing field, Forrest sums up his basic approach with typical economy of verbiage.

"First of all, I believe in discipline," he says. "I believe in a well-conditioned football team, and I believe in a football team's being drilled to a point where they make very few mental mistakes."

Also an exponent of the direct approach from a coaching standpoint, he says: "I go straight down the road with the players and that's the only way I know how to go ... and that's the only way I'm comfortable."

He may have been best described by one of his former Bengal players, punter-wide receiver Pat McInally. "He has a strong personality and he has the ability to lead just with his presence," McInally said. "He doesn't have to just say words. He embodies everything that he believes in and tells his players ... He's not phony. He's genuine, and that's very important — and he finds a way to relate to all his players."

Born Alvis Forrest Gregg in Birthright, TX, Oct. 18, 1933, Gregg had established himself as a multi-talented, injury-free athlete by the time he joined the Packers as a player. He participated in football, basketball, baseball and track at Sulphur Springs, TX, High School, and then twice won all-Southwest Conference honors as a two-way tackle at SMU, captaining the Mustangs in his senior year.

A broken arm, incurred when he was a high school sophomore, was the only major injury he suffered during his athletic career. Later, in the NFL, a bruised knee almost kept him out of a game against Detroit in 1965, but he went in to block on an extra point attempt to keep his consecutive game streak alive.

In 1960, the year that the Packers won their first Western Division title under Lombardi, Gregg was voted all-pro, the first in a string of eight straight years of all-league recognition. In 1965, an injury to Jerry Kramer necessitated his moving to guard but it had no effect on Gregg's "all" status. He was named all-pro at both guard (Associated Press) and tackle (United Press International) that season.

Only two players in the Packers' 65-year NFL history have worn Green Bay's green and gold longer than the "Man from Birthright" — his immediate coaching predecessor, Bart Starr, who played for 16 seasons, and Ray Nitschke, a Packer for 15 seasons.

Although he has known great success as both an athlete and a coach, Gregg won perhaps his greatest battle off the field — winning a bout with cancer during the late '70s. In May of 1982, he went to the White House to accept the American Cancer Society's "National Courage Award" from President Reagan.

A new honor, and one of special significance to him because of his heritage, came to the Packer coach in 1986 when he was enshrined in the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, along with such luminaries from other sports as pro basketball's Elvin Hayes and boxing's George Foreman.

Forrest and his wife, Barbara, have two children — a son, Forrest, Jr., now working under his father as administrative assistant to the Packers' defensive coaching staff, and a daughter, Karen (Mrs. Robert Gray), who is employed in the personnel department of a hotel management corporation in Dallas.

DICK MODZELEWSKI Defensive Coordinator

Colorful and enthusiastic Richard "Mo" Modzelewski, a 20-year coaching veteran, is in his fourth season as the Packers' defensive coordinator.

In 1984, his first season in his current role, Modzelewski took command of a platoon which had finished 28th and last in the National Football League statistically a season earlier. By the end of the year, his revamped defense had improved all the way to 16th place under the tough-minded tutelage of the former pro bowl lineman.

In 1985, the upward trend continued, Green Bay's defense advancing to 12th place. And, despite losing starting strong safety Mark Murphy in training camp and linebacker John Anderson and cornerback Tim Lewis during the first four weeks of the regular season with injuries, he brought his patchwork Packer defense home in 12th place again in 1986.

The 56-year-old Modzelewski, a West Natrona, PA, native, has an impressive football pedigree — as both a player and coach. As a player, the former University of Maryland athlete won the Outland Trophy as the nation's premier college lineman in his senior year (1952), then subsequently played on six conference championship and two NFL title teams — the 1956 New York Giants and 1964 Cleveland Browns — as a professional. He also was chosen to play in the 1964 Pro Bowl.

As a coach, the personable Pennsylvanian helped Cincinnati reach Super Bowl XVI, gain the playoffs again in 1982's strike-shortened season, and achieve No. 1 ranking in the NFL defensively in 1983 while serving as the Bengals' defensive line coach. Earlier, while defensive coordinator at Cleveland, he guided the Browns' defense to its highest ranking in a decade.

Modzelewski, who accompanied Forrest Gregg from Cincinnati to Green Bay when the latter became Packer head coach, was named defensive coordinator by Gregg, May 23, 1984 following Hank Bullough's resignation. He previously had been appointed Packer defensive line coach December 30, 1983.

Born in West Natrona Feb. 16, 1931, Dick began his coaching career with Cleveland in 1968 under the late Blanton Collier. He continued with the Browns under Nick Skorich who succeeded Collier, and was retained by Gregg when he became Cleveland's head coach in 1975. Gregg later appointed Modzelewski defensive coordinator in 1976, a position he also held in 1977. "Mo" later was appointed interim head coach of the Browns for the final game of the '77 season after Gregg resigned. He served as defensive coordinator for the Giants in 1978, then joined the Bengals in 1979 as defensive line coach. Gregg asked him to remain on the Cincinnati staff when Forrest became head coach of the Bengals in 1980.

Drafted in the second round by Washington in 1953, when Packer founder E. L. "Curly" Lambeau was the Redskins' head coach, Modzelewski later played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955 before being traded to the Giants, with whom he became a principal in the legendary Giant "Fearsome Foursome," which also included Andy Robustelli, Jim Katcavage and Rosey Grier.

After starring for the Giants from 1956 through 1963, Dick was traded to Cleveland in 1964 and played three more seasons for the Browns before retiring in 1966.

Dick and his wife, Dorothy, have four children — Mark, Laurie, Terrie and Amie — and two granddaughters, Christine and Michelle.

TOM COUGHLIN Passing Game/Receivers

Hailed as one of the brightest young coaches in professional football by Sid Gillman, the NFL's renowned high priest of offense, Thomas R. "Tom" Coughlin is rapidly gaining a reputation for developing young wide receivers into pre-eminent performers.

The 41-year-old Coughlin (pronounced COFF-lin) was a coaching colleague of Gillman on the Philadelphia staff in 1985 when the Eagles' Mike Quick caught a career-high 73 passes under Tom's tutelage and led the National Football Conference in receiving yardage (1,247).

In 1986, the Packers' Phillip Epps and Walter Stanley also blossomed under Coughlin's demanding and painstaking direction. Epps emerged with 49 receptions, a career best, despite missing the last four games of the season with a broken ankle while Stanley, who replaced Epps following his injury, closed out the season with an imposing 20.7-yard average per catch, a figure which shared league honors (with the Jets' Wesley Walker).

A Waterloo, N.Y. native, Coughlin was named to the Packer coaching staff February 7, 1986 by Head Coach Forrest Gregg, who said in making the appointment, "Our key ... was we wanted someone who had familiarity with our style of offense." Coughlin had been a training camp observer at Cincinnati when Gregg was head coach of the Bengals.

Earlier, Tom was a member of the Boston College staff for three years prior to joining the Eagles in 1984, playing a major role in the development of quarterback Doug Flutie and coordinating the offense. Flutie, now a Chicago Bear, went on to win the Heisman Trophy in '84 and finish with more passing records than any quarterback in collegiate history, another testimonial to Coughlin's knowledge of offense. While Tom was at BC, the football team compiled a 22-10-1 record and in 1983, his final season there won the Lambert Trophy—emblematic of supremacy in the East—for the first time since 1942.

A 1968 graduate of Syracuse University, Coughlin began his coaching career at Rochester, N.Y., where he was head coach from 1969 through 1973 and the only winning coach in the school's history. He then returned to Syracuse, where he spent seven years on the coaching staff at his alma mater, serving as offensive coordinator under Frank Maloney from 1974 through 1980.

Born August 31, 1945, Coughlin won all-state and all-America honors as an offensive halfback at Waterloo, N.Y., Central High School and went on to letter for three years as a wingback at Syracuse under famed coach Ben Schwartzwalder, while playing in the same backfield as Floyd Little and Larry Csonka. In each of his last two years, he won the school's "Orange Key" award as the outstanding student-athlete on the varsity football team. He later served as a graduate assistant on the Syracuse coaching staff in 1968 while completing work on a master's degree in education.

Tom and his wife, Judy, have four children, Keli, 17; Tim, 15; Brian, 10; and Katie, 5.

DICK JAURON Defensive Backfield Coach

Dick Jauron, an insightful student of defense, made a significant impact upon the Packer secondary in 1986, his first season on Green Bay's coaching staff.

Under his direction, the Packer "outfield" produced a substantial increase in interceptions in 1986 (20 compared to 15 in 1985) despite the loss of two starters — strong safety Mark Murphy, who missed the entire season, because of a foot problem, and cornerback Tim Lewis, who suffered a career-ending injury in the third game of the season against the Chicago Bears.

Named to the position by Head Coach Forrest Gregg January 7, 1986, succeeding Ken Riley, Jauron began his pro coaching career in 1985, signing on as interim secondary coach of the Buffalo Bills after Bills defensive backfield coach Dick Moseley suffered a heart attack. Jauron (pronounced JUH-RON), left the business field to join the Buffalo staff, and continued to work with the Bills' defense after Moseley rejoined the staff in mid-season.

The former Detroit Lion star earlier had played for Gregg in 1980, the latter's first year as head coach at Cincinnati, before suffering a knee injury which ended his career. He subsequently assisted the Bengal coaching staff during Cincinnati's 1981 Super Bowl season while spending the year on injured reserve. Gregg later offered Jauron a coaching job the following season but Dick decided to go into business.

A graduate of Yale, where he ranks as one of the school's all-time greats, the 36-year-old Jauron entered professional football in 1973 as a fourth round selection of the Detroit Lions and was named to the Pro Bowl following the 1974 season, his second in the NFL. Released by the Lions Aug. 23, 1978, he signed with Cincinnati six days later and was a Bengal starter until he suffered the knee injury in Game 10 of the '80 season.

Jauron, a native of Swampscott, MA, made a total of 26 interceptions over his eight pro seasons, including a career-high six for Cincinnati in 1979, and returned two of them for touchdowns. He also recovered 14 fumbles. Also employed as a kick returner in the early years of his NFL career, he posted a 10.2-yard average for 44 punt returns, including an impressive 16.8-yard average for 17 runbacks in 1974.

After retiring as a player, he owned a health fitness center in Cincinnati with teammate Jimmy Corbett. He sold his interest in the business in 1983 and moved to Florida, where he was employed by Nautilus until he joined the Buffalo coaching staff in July of 1985.

Born Dick Manual Jauron on Oct. 7, 1950, he was a nine-letter winner at Swampscott High School (three each in football, basketball and baseball) before going on to ensconce himself among Yale's all-time football elite. An offensive back as a collegian, he still owns Yale's career rushing record (2,947 yards in 515 attempts, a 5.7-yard average), holds the second longest run from scrimmage in the school's history (an 87-yard maneuver against Columbia in 1972) and ranks second in Yale annals in both total offense (2,952 yards) and scoring (170 points). A three-letter winner, he was named to the Kodak and Walter Camp All-America teams following his senior season and chosen to play in the East-West Shrine game.

A career in football was inevitable for the soft-spoken easterner. Dick's father, Robert, was a successful college football coach, once directing St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer, IN, to the national small college championship during the late 1940s.

Dick and his wife, Gail, are the parents of two daughters, Kacy, born, April 2, 1985 and Amy, born October 3, 1986.

COACHES

VIRGIL KNIGHT Strength/Conditioning Coach

Forrest Gregg places a high premium on the physical strength of his players — so high that he hired Virgil Knight as the first strength and conditioning coach in Packer history when he became Green Bay's head coach in 1984. In the three-year interim, the Packers have made significant strides in this area under Knight's direction.

A 14-year coaching veteran of the college ranks, Knight was named to the Green Bay staff Feb. 9, 1984. Previously a position coach, he had had five years' experience as a strength coach —beginning in 1979 when he moved from Arkansas Tech to the University of Florida. He left Florida in 1981 to become a member of Coach Pat Dye's staff at Auburn, spending three years at the Alabama institution before joining the Packers.

In addition to his duties in the strength and conditioning area, Knight assists Jerry Wampfler with the offensive line.

Born January 30, 1948 in Clarksville, AR, Knight began his coaching career at Sylvan Hills High School in Little Rock, AR, in 1971. After one year there and three years at Marist, GA, High School, he moved into the college ranks at Arkansas Tech, where he coached the defensive line and linebackers for four years and also was head track coach.

As an athlete himself, Virgil won all-state honors in football and was an all-district selection in basketball in high school at Clarksville. He later attended Northeast Oklahoma University, where he was named to the All-Oklahoma Collegiate Athletic Conference football team in both his junior and senior years, and also competed in track.

Virgil and his wife, Becky, have two sons, Trent, 13, and Josh, 6.

DALE LINDSEY Linebackers

Few coaches around the National Football League can match the Packers' Dale Lindsey in variety of experience. Green Bay's moustachioed linebacker coach, a tireless taskmaster, is a veteran of coaching service in four professional football leagues.

Now in his eleventh season as a pro coach, the 44-year-old Kentuckian began his career as linebacker coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1974, when current Packer Head Coach Forrest Gregg was in charge of the Browns' offensive line. The following year, he joined the staff of the World Football League's Portland Storm.

Lindsey later moved into the Canadian Football League, joining Gregg's Toronto Argonaut staff in 1979 and remaining there through the 1982 season.

In 1983, Dale transferred to the United States Football League, where he served as linebacker coach of the Boston Breakers. He transferred to the New Jersey Generals in 1984, working as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach under Walter Michaels, former New York Jets head coach.

Between his stints with Portland and Toronto Lindsey was head football coach at Warren Central High School in Bowling Green, KY, from 1976 through 1978.

Dale, a Western Kentucky University star as a collegian, was drafted by both the Cleveland Browns (NFL) and New York Jets (AFL) in 1965 after twice being named to the All-Ohio Valley Conference team and to the Little All-America first team as a senior. He elected to play for the Browns and remained with Cleveland for nine years before launching his coaching career.

Lindsey and his wife Eva, have three children — Blan, Jennifer and Jim — and one grandchild.

WILLIE PEETE Offensive Backfield/Special Teams

Willie Peete, the Packers' new offensive backfield coach and special teams coordinator, has coached at every level—high school, college and professional—during a 25-year career.

The 49-year-old Peete, a former University of Arizona athlete and coach, was named to the Green Bay coaching staff by Head Coach Forrest Gregg February 13, 1987, succeeding John Hilton. He had served as offensive backfield coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for the past four years.

A native of Mesa, AZ, where he was born July 14, 1937. Peete had been an assistant coach at the University of Arizona for 12 years before joining the Kansas City organization in 1983 as an original member of John Mackovic's staff.

Willie, described as "a quality coach" by Gregg in making the appointment, began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant while completing his degree in physical education. He returned to his hometown, Mesa, upon graduation and became an assistant coach in both football and track at Mesa High School. He subsequently moved to a new high school, Westwood, where he served as an assistant in football and then as junior varsity basketball coach for seven years, a period during which he earned his master's degree in secondary education from Arizona State.

Peete later returned to the University of Arizona in 1971, joining the coaching staff on a full-time basis and staying on until he signed on with the Chiefs prior to the 1983 NFL season.

A talented, all-around athlete himself, Willie won four varsity letters in football at the University of Arizona, where he played fullback. He earlier had earned nine letters—three each in football, basketball and baseball—in a three-year high school program at Mesa.

Willie and his wife, Edna, have two sons who also have excelled in football—Skip, 23, a Kansas University alumnus who went to training camp with the New York Jets this season as a wide receiver, and Rodney, a junior at USC, where he is the starting quarterback.

GEORGE SEFCIK Quarterback Coach

George Sefcik, the Packers' offensive backfield coach in 1984 and 1985, demonstrated his coaching versatility in a new role last season. Taking over as quarterback coach, he saw his patient guidance of first year starter Randy Wright pay gratifying dividends as his protege blossomed into one of the NFL's most effective field generals, underscoring his development by compiling the third highest single season totals in Packer history for both completions and passing yards.

A year earlier, Sefcik's offensive backs also had been highly productive, averaging 4.7 yards per carry, second best average in the league.

A Notre Dame alumnus, Sefcik originally joined Head Coach Forrest Gregg when the Packer head coach was forming his first coaching staff at Cleveland in 1975. He was offensive backfield coach of the Browns from 1975 through 1977, later joining the Cincinnati staff in 1978 upon Gregg's recommendation. He served under Bill "Tiger" Johnson with the Bengals for two seasons and was retained by Gregg when Forrest took over as head coach at Cincinnati in 1980.

When Gregg became head coach of the Packers following the 1983 season, Sefcik was the first assistant Number 75 appointed.

The 47-year-old Ohioan, a Cleveland native, is credited with returning the 1,000-yard rusher to the Bengal offense during his stay in Cincinnati. In 1981, Bengal fullback Pete Johnson rushed for 1,077 yards, thus becoming Cincinnati's first 1,000-yard rusher since Paul Robinson in 1968. Two years earlier, in 1979, Sefcik's Bengal running backs gained more yardage collectively and scored more touchdowns than any such group in Cincinnati history.

Born in Cleveland December 27, 1939, George was a two-way halfback on the Notre Dame teams of 1959-60-61. Following graduation, he became a head coach at Niles, IL, High School, then returned to Notre Dame as freshman coach under Ara Parseghian. He served as an aide to Parseghian until 1964, when he moved to the University of Kentucky as offensive coordinator. Four years later, Sefcik launched his pro coaching career under Howard Schnellenberger with the Baltimore Colts in 1973. He then joined Gregg's Cleveland staff in 1975 when Forrest became head coach of the Browns.

Sefcik is a graduate of Cleveland's Benedictine High School. He and his wife, Loretta (Lori), have three children.

JERRY WAMPFLER Offensive Line Coach

A superior teacher as well as a master technician, Jerry Wampfler forged one of the most impressive and rewarding achievements of his coaching career in 1986. Despite the loss of starting left guard Rich Moran on the first play of the regular season, and being without the services of starting center Mark Cannon for nine of the 16 games, he nurtured the youngest offensive line in the National Football League into one of its most effective units before the season had run its course. Only five teams in the 14-club National Football Conference permitted fewer sacks than Wampfler's youthful alignment, a remarkable accomplishment considering that, for better than half of the season, five-year pro Ron Hallstrom was the only starter with more than two years' experience and that two others were rookies.

A year earlier, Wampfler played a key role in the resurgence of the Packer running game. Overcoming injury problems and related reshuffling of personnel up front, he regrouped the offensive line so effectively that Green Bay emerged with the second best rushing average in the NFL in 1985 (4.7 yards).

Previously a member of the Eagles' coaching staff, Jerry gained a reputation in Philadelphia for producing outstanding offensive linemen. His prominent Eagle pupils included Pro Bowl tackles Jerry Sisemore and Stan Walters. As a member of the Packer staff, he more recently has presided over the development of Ken Ruettgens into one of the league's foremost offensive tackles.

Named to the Packer staff by Head Coach Forrest Gregg January 8, 1984, he had been running game coordinator as well as offensive line coach for Philadelphia from 1979 through 1983, serving under Dick Vermeil from 1979 through 1982 and under Marion Campbell in 1983.

The New Philadelphia, OH, native had launched his pro coaching career with the Eagles in 1973 as an assistant to Mike McCormack. He moved to the Buffalo Bills in 1976 and to the New York Giants in 1978 before rejoining the Eagles' staff in 1979.

Born August 6, 1932, Wampfler was a standout offensive tackle at Miami of Ohio from 1951 through 1954. An off-season back injury forced him to miss an NFL tryout as a Los Angeles Rams draft choice and he turned to coaching in the high school ranks — first in his native New Philadelphia, then at Lancaster and Massillon, OH, before returning to his alma mater, Miami of Ohio, as an assistant to Bo Schembechler when the latter became head coach there.

In 1965, Jerry moved to Notre Dame as offensive line coach on the staff of Ara Parseghian, then to Colorado State as head coach in 1970. Three years later, he entered the pro coaching ranks with the Eagles.

Wampfler and his wife, Carol, have three children — Nan, 30; Jody, 28; and Tad, 26.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

DICK CORRICK Director of College Scouting

Dick Corrick, regarded as one of professional football's most astute judges of talent, is responsible for coordinating all Packer scouting of college players.

In his role, the former Oregon State athlete directs the scouting activities of a six-man staff and assists Head Coach Forrest Gregg and Executive Vice President of Football Operations Tom Braatz in making critical decisions during the annual National Football League draft.

On the road from September through December, Corrick also augments the scouts' reports by making a tour of the nation's major colleges and universities to personally evaluate the top-rated players.

Appointed director of player personnel by then Head Coach Bart Starr in 1978, Corrick responded by supervising drafts which produced such quality performers as John Anderson, Tim Lewis, Mark Lee, Eddie Lee Ivey, James Lofton, Ken Ruettggers, Phillip Epps and Walter Stanley.

Named director of college scouting by Braatz May 9, 1987 in a re-structuring of the personnel department, Corrick had been associated with the Packer coaching staff in the area of team development in 1977 before assuming an executive role. He joined the Green Bay organization in 1971 as a college talent scout and later served as director of pro player personnel from May 6, 1975 until early 1977.

Born April 22, 1934, Corrick is a 53-year-old graduate of LaJolla, CA, High School. A combative, 161-pound center-linebacker under Tommy Prothro at Oregon State, he later coached in the high school and college ranks for 16 years before joining the Packer scouting staff.

Dick is the father of two children, Traci, 28, and Rowdy, 26. A skilled chef, he enjoys creating a gourmet meal for himself and his wife, Bonnie, during leisure at home.

John Anderson - 59

LINEBACKER • MICHIGAN • 10TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 228 • BORN: 2/14/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '78)

PRO: One of the premier linebackers in Packer history, he returns to bulwark the defense after missing most of the 1986 season with a broken left ankle, suffered in first quarter of Game Four against the Vikings at Minneapolis (Sept. 28) ... The injury ended a 77-game starting streak, then second in longevity on the Packer roster ... Made 21 tackles, along with six assists, and one interception before being injured ... Both dedicated and highly intelligent, he has been a classic example of consistency and discipline since becoming a starter in the opening game of his rookie, 1978 season ... The quality of his contributions was formally recognized when he was voted Packers' most valuable defensive player for three consecutive seasons (1982-83-84) by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media ... Equally effective at playing the run or the pass, he had his most productive season in '83 when he amassed 120 solo tackles, including four quarterback sacks, made 5 interceptions to share the team lead and knocked down 7 other passes ... Punctuated his personal season that year by returning one of those 5 interceptions 27 yards for his first pro touchdown (vs. Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Green Bay Oct. 2) ... His three consecutive MVP laurels underscored a heartwarming comeback for the former Academic All-American, hampered by injuries during his first three pro seasons, in each of which he suffered a fracture of the left arm ... Wears a specially designed protective device (designed by Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile) to safeguard the arm, broken for first time in Game 12 of his baptismal, 1978 season ... again in a training camp scrimmage July 28, 1979 and a third time in Game Nine at Pittsburgh, Nov. 2, 1980 ... Missed first nine games of the '79 season and last 7 of '80 because of the latter two injuries ... Underwent remedial surgery in late 1980, a procedure in which bone was grafted from a hip into the left arm ... Operation was designed to give the bone greater density ... Displayed his versatility upon returning to action in 1979 by kicking a 39-yard field goal in his first — and to date, only — pro placekicking attempt ... Earned consensus NFL all-rookie honors in '78, when he became an instant starter, making four interceptions in his first three games ... Listed as backup punter on Packer depth chart, earlier in his career, he averaged better than 40 yards for a career total of 180 punts at Michigan.

COLLEGE: Academic All-American as junior ... Environmental education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Roger John Anderson ... Married (Susan) and father of a daughter, Christine Carly, born 10/18/86 ... Voted Packers' NFL 'Man of the Year' by fans in 1983 for his efforts in behalf of civic and charitable causes ... Graduate of Waukesha, WI, South High School ... Former Wisconsin Punt, Pass & Kick champion ... Has built impressive reputation as after dinner speaker ... Deeply religious, he often discusses his belief during speaking appearances ... Hobbies: Travel, basketball and barbecuing ... Hometown: Waukesha, WI ... Residence: Elm Grove, WI.

QUARTERBACK • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 1ST YEAR
HT: 6-2½ • WT: 198 • BORN: 1/11/63 • (ACQ: D-3, '86)

PRO: Ranked among the most proficient and productive passers in college football history coming out of BYU in 1986, he subsequently spent '86 season on injured reserve because of an injury problem in the shoulder of his passing (right) arm ... Underwent surgery in mid-October — performed by Dr. Frank Jobe in Los Angeles — to correct instability in the shoulder ... Has undergone extensive rehabilitation in the interim under Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile and is expected to be available for the '87 season ... "Robbie has been making good progress," Gentile said, "and should be able to throw with normal velocity by the beginning of the regular season" ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, impressed with what he saw of Bosco during training camp and pre-season workouts a year ago, says of him, "We have a lot of confidence in Robbie. We think he's going to be a good quarterback."

COLLEGE: The 24-year-old Californian finished third in NCAA career passing efficiency with a 149.4 rating, ranking behind only Jim McMahon (156.9) and Steve Young (149.8), both also former BYU quarterbacks, and ahead of John Elway (139.3) ... At the time of graduation, Bosco's NCAA records included: Most consecutive 200-yard passing games, 12; most 200-yard passing games in a season, also 12; most passes completed, three consecutive games, 105; most plays total offense, two years, 1,121; most completions, two years, 621; most passing attempts, two years, 969; most pass completions, one season, 338; most passing attempts, one season, 511; most yards passing, two years, 8,148. Also tied record for most seasons of 3,000-yards total offense or more with two (3,875 in 1984 and 4,273 in 1985) ... Compiled a 24-2 record as a starting quarterback for BYU, including '84 Holiday Bowl victory over Michigan ... Injured a knee early in the Holiday Bowl contest but returned to the game to finish with 30 pass completions in 43 attempts for 343 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the winning TD pass with 1:23 left in game ... Runnerup to Doug Flutie for Davey O'Brien Award, given to outstanding collegiate quarterback, and finished third in Heisman Trophy balloting ... Led nation in total offense that season (average of 327.7 yards per game while escorting BYU to the national championship ... Posted personal career bests in 1985 for attempts (61, vs. New Mexico), completions (42, vs. New Mexico), yards (585, vs. New Mexico) and passing percentage (.809 on 17-for-21

Jerry Boyarsky - 61

NOSE TACKLE • PITTSBURGH • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 290 • BORN: 5/15/59 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: The compactly constructed ex-Bengal, a seven-year veteran, originally joined Packers Dec. 2, 1986 ... Appeared in two games — vs. Minnesota Vikings Dec. 7 and vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 14 ... Waived when Charles Martin rejoined team for '86 season finale against Giants following 2-game suspension ... Boyarsky, who previously had played for Head Coach Forrest Gregg at Cincinnati in 1982 and '83, was re-signed to a Packer contract March 27, 1987 ... The former Pitt Panther had begun the '86 season with Buffalo and appeared in 10 games before being waived Nov. 24 ... Made 12 tackles and was credited with 2 quarterback pressures while backing up Fred Smerlas for Bills ... Signed on with the Bills Sept. 10, 1986 after being waived in the pre-season by the Bengals, with whom he had spent the previous four seasons (1982 through 1985) ... A fifth round selection (the 128th player chosen) of the New Orleans Saints in 1981 ... Played in 11 games as a rookie after spending first month of the regular season on injured reserve with a knee injury ... Released by Saints Sept. 6, 1982, he signed with Cincinnati Dec. 1 of the same season ... Played in 2 games for the Bengals that year and in 46 of 48 games over the next three seasons before being waived in '86.

COLLEGE: Played nose guard in Pitt's nationally ranked No. 1 defense ... Third-best career tackler among graduating seniors (215) behind Hugh Green and Rickey Jackson ... Four-year letterman ... Has bachelor of arts degree in political science.

Don Bracken - 17

PUNTER • MICHIGAN • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 205 • BORN: 2/16/62 • (ACQ: FA, '85)

PRO: Took over as Packers' resident punter in tenth week of 1985 season and retained that status in 1986 before being sidelined by injury for final three games ... Suffered fractured left elbow in freak practice field mishap Dec. 4, falling after slipping on an icy patch of turf while delivering a punt ... Had averaged 40.1 yards for 55 punts prior to injury ... Was credited with placing 6 punts within the opponents' 20-yard-line and had only 5 of his efforts result in touchbacks, a record bettered in the National Football Conference only by Minnesota's Greg Coleman and Greg Cater of St. Louis ... Had a long of 63 yards, registered against Pittsburgh Nov. 2 ... Bracken, who succeeded Joe Prokop as Packers' punter, was recommended to Head Coach Forrest Gregg by Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, for whom Bracken set school's all-time punting record with a 43.3-yard average as a sophomore ... Joined Green Bay Nov. 6, 1985 and made his first appearance for the Packers vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Metrodome Nov. 10, getting off a 44-yarder in his only punt of the afternoon during a 27-17 victory ... Originally selected by Michigan of USFL in 1984 territorial draft and signed by Panthers in January of 1984 ... Released by Michigan Feb. 16 of that year, he had subsequent tryouts with Kansas City Chiefs, Baltimore Colts and Denver Broncos of the NFL, remaining with the Broncos until late in the '85 pre-season (August 27) before being waived ... Averaged 40.5 yards for 26 punts with Packers after joining Green Bay early in November.

COLLEGE: A four-year starter for Michigan, he punted 203 times for 8,273 yards, a 40.8 average ... Possessor of excellent hang time, he punted 48 times as a junior and only 14 were returned for a 2.0-yard average ... Set Michigan single season average record as a freshman (42.7), then broke it as a sophomore (43.3), a mark that ranked second in Big Ten that season ... His 41.9-yard average going into his senior year stood as the fifth best in Big Ten history at the time ... Earned second team All-Big Ten honors his first three seasons ... His 73-yard punt vs. Washington in 1981 Rose Bowl set a record for the post-season classic ... Exercise physiology major.

Robert Brown - 93

DEFENSIVE END • VIRGINIA TECH • 6TH YEAR

HT: 6-2 • WT: 270 • BORN: 5/21/60 • (ACQ: D-4, '82)

PRO: Became a full-time starter in 1986, his fourth pro season, starting all 16 games at right end on defense ... Registered 32 solo tackles, matching the production of fellow starter LE Alphonso Carreker, his total including two quarterback sacks ... He also had 15 assists and recovered one fumble ... Led defensive platoon in fumble recoveries with four in 1985, a season in which he played extensively in all 16 games and started four ... Also forged Packers' only safety of the '85 season, and team's first in nearly two years, felling Lions' quarterback Joe Ferguson in the Detroit end zone during a 43-10 Green Bay victory (Oct. 6) ... Earlier that afternoon, Brown had recovered a fumble at the Detroit 36-yard-line, setting up Packers' second touchdown ... The hardworking Virginia Tech product also highlighted his 1985 production by posting three quarterback sacks among 17 unassisted tackles, knocking down one pass and forcing a fumble ... Spiced his personal season in 1984 by intercepting a Gary Hogeboom pass vs. Dallas (Sept. 23) and returning it 5 yards for a third quarter touchdown — the Packers' only score of the afternoon as well as his first interception and TD as a professional ... Also proved to be effective pass rusher in '84, collecting five QB sacks ... Launched Packer career as a linebacker in rookie, 1982 season, transferring to defensive end in '83 ... Impressed by Brown's effort and consistency, Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski says of him, "I have full, total confidence in Robert Brown. I wouldn't hesitate to play him any place. He's turned out to be a darned good pass rusher and he can play at defensive end against the run" ... Was special teams standout in 1983, playing key role in kickoff coverage team's third place finish in National Football Conference statistics ... Paced unit with 16 unassisted tackles ... Also was major contributor on Packer "suicide squads" as a rookie in 1982, making nine solo tackles on coverage units during strike-shortened 9-game season ... Has played in 73 consecutive games, longest durability streak by a current Packer.

COLLEGE: All-South Independent first team selection and NEA and College and Pro Football Newsweekly second choice following senior season at Virginia Tech ... Also voted VT's MVP ... Named Virginia Big Five "Defensive Player of the Year" as a junior ... Transferred to Tech from Chowan Junior College, where he won All-America honors ... Played in Hula and Olympic Gold Bowls following senior season ... Education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Robert Lee Brown ... Nickname: "Rob" ... Married (Susan) and father of son, Michael Bradley (9/16/85) ... Completing education at Northern Virginia Community College ... Mark Cannon - 58

CENTER • TEXAS-ARLINGTON • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 270 • BORN: 6/4/62 • (ACQ: D-11, '84)

PRO: A low round draft choice three years ago, he has rapidly developed into one of the NFL's finest centers ... Hampered by injuries in 1986 after establishing himself as the starter in 1985, only his second year as a professional ... Injured left knee in Game Five against Bengals at Milwaukee, spending five weeks on injured reserve before returning to the starting lineup against Tampa Bay in Milwaukee Nov. 16 ... Re-injured left knee against Bears at Chicago's Soldier Field the following Sunday (Nov. 23) and was sidelined for the balance of the season ... A year earlier, the tireless Texas-Arlington alumnus had become the biggest individual success story of the Packers' 1985 season when he made the quantum leap from special teams long snapper to starting status following the injury-enforced retirement of veteran Larry McCarren ... Subsequently won Packer coaches' plaudits by quickly establishing himself among the National Football League's premier centers ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, asked to select the team's most valuable player following the season, said: "The guy that probably played every down, and probably played as well as anybody the whole year, was Mark Cannon" ... He also was described by Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampler as the most improved player in the offensive line over the '85 season ... Cannon likewise earned the admiration of former Philadelphia Eagles coach Dick Vermeil, who late in the '85 season tabbed Cannon as the Packer offensive line standout ... Such accolades capped a storybook season for the youthful Texan, who had been a late (eleventh round) draft choice just a year earlier ... After serving as the Packers' long snapper in his rookie, 1984 season, he started all 16 games in '85 and also handled all of the snaps on punts, extra points and field goals ... In addition to his long snap contributions in '84, he also was a factor on kickoff coverage, registering six solo tackles ... He earlier had beaten out Larry Rubens, a three-year veteran, for the backup center berth.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Maida Cannon ... Married (Jenny) ... Serves as Packers' player representative ... Born in Whittier, CA ... All-district selection at defensive tackle at S. F. Austin High School in Austin, TX ... Continued education at Texas-Arlington in off-season ... Hometown: Austin, TX.

DEFENSIVE END • FLORIDA STATE • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 270 • BORN: 5/25/62 • (ACQ: D-1, '84)

PRO: The first player Forrest Gregg selected in the draft after becoming the Packers' head coach in 1984, Carreker started all 16 games in 1986 ... Registered 32 solo tackles, including 3½ quarterback sacks, and 10 assists ... Also broke up one pass, forced one fumble and recovered one ... Gregg, evaluating Carreker's '86 performance, said of him, "I thought, overall, Alphonso had a good year. He still needs improvement but I think he's a very, very steady football player" ... Had his best performance as professional to date in the 1985 "Snow Bowl" in Green Bay's Lambeau Field (Dec. 1), collecting four quarterback sacks during a 13-inch snowstorm, a performance which earned him National Football Conference "Defensive Player of the Week" honors ... Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski says of Carreker, "I think he's got the ability — all the tools — to be an outstanding defensive end" ... Carreker had what Modzelewski described as a "good rookie year" in 1984 when he won consensus NFL All-Rookie honors ... Emerged as runnerup in tackles along the defensive line with 32, including 4 QB sacks for 18 yards in losses ... Missed two games because of leg injury ... Started 14 of 16 games in 1985, giving way to returning veteran Mike Butler for two games before regaining the position when an injury shelved Butler ... Eight, or over half, of his

Paul Ott Carruth - 30

FULLBACK • ALABAMA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 7/22/61 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: The ex-Birmingham Stallion joined Packers as a free agent in mid-August of 1986, after United States Football League found it expedient to release a number of players — and proceeded to win the starting job at fullback before two months had elapsed ... Took over in Game Five against the Cincinnati Bengals at Milwaukee County Stadium (Oct. 5) and held the position the rest of the way ... Closed out as Packers' No. 3 rusher with 308 yards in 81 carries, a 3.8 average, and 2 touchdowns ... Also caught 24 passes for 134 yards and 2 TDs ... His 4 TDs and 24 points enabled him to share team runnerup scoring honors with Phillip Epps and James Lofton ... Had his best rushing performance of the season against Buccaneers at Tampa Dec. 14, gaining 56 yards in 11 carries ... His production included a 42-yard run, his longest of the year ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg says of Carruth: "(Paul) became an exceptionally dependable football player, just solid at the position. He did a good job of running the ball, did an excellent job of blocking, did a good job in our passing system, and he should be better in 1987" ... Carruth says of himself: "I do everything to a certain level. I'm not a great at any one thing. I'm not a great runner, not a great receiver, not a great blocker, but good enough at all of them to get the job done" ... Signed on with Birmingham following his senior (1984) season at Alabama. Had attracted Gregg's attention as a member of the South squad in the 1985 Senior Bowl, when Gregg coached the South and had an opportunity to observe him at close hand during a week of practice for the game ... Later was chosen MVP in the senior bowl ... Played behind Joe Cribbs at Birmingham, starting one game ... As a Packer in 1986, he was the team's emergency quarterback as well as the starting fullback, having played quarterback his first three years in high school.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at halfback for Alabama ... Captained Crimson Tide as a senior ... Advertising major ... Recruited out of high school as a wish-bone QB.

Jessie Clark - 33

FULLBACK • ARKANSAS • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 233 • BORN: 1/3/60 • (ACQ: D-7, '83)

PRO: A bruising, reckless runner when healthy, he was handicapped by injury problems in 1986 after enjoying the best year of his professional career a year earlier ... Troubled by a rib injury, he saw action in only five games, starting one (vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Sept. 28) ... Led Packers in rushing that afternoon with 33 yards in 9 attempts ... An intense, all-out competitor, Clark had the most productive season of his career in 1985 ... Starting 14 of 16 games, he emerged as team's No. 2 rusher with 633 yards in 147 attempts, a 3.8 average (he fell only 3 yards short of team leader Eddie Lee Ivey) ... Punctuated his efforts with the longest run from scrimmage of the National Football League season — an 80-yard excursion against the Cardinals at St. Louis Sept. 29 ... It also was the fourth longest run from scrimmage in Packer history ... Closed out the day with 112 yards in 9 attempts — the first 100-yard rushing day of his pro career and one of three by Packer running backs in '85 ... Collaborated with quarterback Jim Zorn in pulling off another memorable play Nov. 3 of '85, gathering in a Zorn pass and cantering into the end zone to complete a 55-yard pass-run maneuver which staked Green Bay to a temporary 10-7, third quarter lead over the eventual Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears ... Finished as runnerup to team leader Al Del Greco in scoring with 42 points on 7 touchdowns ... A leader by example, Clark saw his all-out contributions formally underscored when Head Coach Forrest Gregg named him offensive captain just prior to the Packers' fifth game of the '85 season ... Started first 11 games of 1984 season at fullback before incurring an elbow injury which sidelined him for the rest of the year ... Despite sitting out those last five weeks, he finished as the Packers' No. 3 rusher (375 yards in 87 carries) and No. 4 receiver (29 catches for 234 yards) ... Emerged as team's No. 2 rusher as a rookie in 1983, gaining 328 yards in 71 carries — despite being hampered by a turf toe injury for several weeks ... He also teamed with quarterback Lynn Dickey to forge the Packers' longest offensive play of the '83 season, a 75-yard pass-run touchdown in a 55-14 triumph over Tampa Bay (Oct. 2) ... Complements his rushing and receiving contributions with an exceptional performance as a blocker ... Was a special teams standout as a rookie, registering 13 unassisted tackles on coverage units.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at Arkansas ... Posted 4.4 career rushing average ... Transferred from Louisiana Tech in 1980 ... Redshirted in '80, then won No. 1 fullback job in spring drills of '81 ... Sociology major.

PERSONAL: Given name Jessie Clark ... Single ... Graduate of Crossett, AR, High School, where he rushed for 950 yards and 12 touchdowns as a senior ... Twelve-letter winner as prep, collecting three letters

Kenneth Davis - 36

RUNNING BACK • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • 2ND YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 209 • BORN: 4/16/62 • (ACQ: D-2, '86)

PRO: The Packers' top choice in the 1986 draft, the gifted Texan emerged as team's leading rusher as a rookie despite being only a part-time starter ... A starter in 6 games overall — for the last time against the Bears in Chicago Nov. 23 — he averaged an impressive 4.6 yards per attempt overall, gaining 519 yards in 114 tries ... Had Packers' longest run from scrimmage, a 50-yarder in season finale vs. New York Giants (Dec. 14) ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, describing Davis as "a very, very talented" running back, said of him "Kenneth showed at times during the year just how much talent he really did have ... You can go back to that last game of the year, the Giant game ... I think that you'll see a different football player from him this year because of the knowledge of the offense. He had come from a veer-type offense where they did not throw the ball very much ... The passing game and the system itself was just completely foreign to him" ... Had best day — and the most productive outing for a Packer running back all season — against Washington in Green Bay Nov. 9, gaining 93 yards in 16 attempts ... Earlier rushed for 65 yards in 10 attempts in the second half at Cleveland (Oct. 19) to spearhead a comeback which produced a 17-14 come-from-behind victory, the Packers' first of the season ... Caught 21 passes for 142 yards and one touchdown overall ... Also made major contributions on special teams, averaging 19.3 yards for 12 kickoff returns and weighing in with 7 solo tackles and 2 assists on coverage units.

COLLEGE: Set TCU single season (1,611 yards in 1984) and career (2,944 yards in 493 attempts) records for rushing ... TCU's first consensus All-American (chosen in 1984) since Bob Lilly was so honored in 1959 ... Finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting in '84 ... Missed all but one game his senior year after being dismissed from team by Head Coach Jim Wacker when it was discovered he and five other Horned Frog players had violated NCAA regulations by receiving illegal payments ... Speech communications major.

PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth Earl Davis ... Single ... One of 12 children ... Considered one of Lone Star state's top racquetball players ... Lists professional pool champions Willie Mosconi and Minnesota Fats as personal sports heroes because he aspires to be a professional pool player one day ... Led his Temple, TX, High School team to an unbeaten season and a Texas state championship ... Widely recruited as a prep All-American before settling upon TCU ... Hometown: Temple, TX.

Al Del Greco - 10

PLACEKICKER • AUBURN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 185 • BORN: 3/2/62 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: In just 2½ seasons, the unflappable Auburn alumnus has begun to carve a niche for himself in the Packer record book.... An unheralded, once-cut free agent when he joined the Green Bay roster in 1984, he enters 1987 season needing only five more consecutive conversions to pass the legendary Jan Stenerud in this category and own the second longest such streak in Packer annals. The four-year pro made all 29 extra points he attempted in 1986, extending his current string to 63 — only four short of Stenerud's 67 (Paul Hornung holds the club record, 96).... The Packers' leading scorer in each of his first three seasons, he further entrenched himself in club archives in '86 when he padded his point total to 236, a development which lifted him past Paul Coffman (234) into 15th place on the team's career scoring list.... En route, he tied the Packer single game record for field goal successes — for a second time — by hitting on four attempts against the Bears on nationally televised "Monday Night Football" the night of Sept. 22.... Del Greco launched his 63 consecutive PAT streak in Game Four of the 1985 season against St. Louis when he went four-for-four, going on to close out the year with 34 in a row.... Overall, the stocky Providence, R.I., native has converted 101 of 103 extra point attempts as a Packer.... He was perfect (34 of 34) in '84 and 38 of 40 in '85 before going 29-for-29 last season.... Complemented his PAT perfection in '86 by hitting on 17 of 27 field goals and emerging as team's leading scorer with 80 points.... Has made 45 of 65 career FG attempts, a 69.2 efficiency percentage.... His overall efforts prompted Head Coach Forrest Gregg to observe, "Al had a good year.... I thought he was solid".... Became Packers' resident placekicker in Game Eight of the '84 season after being summoned from the Auburn campus, where he was working toward a degree in business transportation — to replace Eddie Garcia.... He hit on his first field goal attempt as a professional against Seattle that day and went on to make eight in succession and finish season 9-for-12.... Had memorable performance in second last game of the '85 season when he made all four field goals he attempted against Detroit (Dec. 15), including a 27-yarder as time expired which gave the Packers a 26-23 victory and a season sweep of the Lions.... That game-winning kick also enabled him to tie a Packer record for most field goals in a game, a mark he now shares with Paul Hornung, Jerry Kramer, Chester Marcol, Tom Birney and Jan Stenerud.... It was Del Greco's second game-winning boot of the season, following a 22-yard effort with 7 seconds remaining to pull out a 20-17 victory over Vikings at Milwaukee County Stadium (Oct. 13).... Closed out season with 19 FG in 26 attempts, an impressive .731 efficiency percentage.... Had biggest day of rookie season vs. Saints at New Orleans, hitting three field goals and two conversions to account for 11 points and margin of victory in a 23-13 win.... Originally had tryout with Packers in May mini-camp earlier in '84 but did not sign a contract.... Later signed with Miami (he grew up in and is an off-season resident of Florida) and made 4 of 6 FG attempts during pre-season before being released when Dolphins' Don Shula decided to retain veteran Uwe von Schamann.... Del Greco subsequently returned to Auburn campus and was pursuing a degree when the Packers called him for a second tryout after Garcia began to have problems.... Less than a month later, Green Bay called a third time and Del Greco became a Packer.

COLLEGE: Placekicking specialist at Auburn all four years.... Holds school record for career field goals (42), conversions (110), most field goals in a game (6, vs. Kentucky in 1982) and most consecutive points after touchdown (55).... Missed only one PAT try during his college career.

PRO: "I thought John came a long way in 1986," Dale Lindsey, the Packers' linebacker coach says of the swashbuckling University of Connecticut product. "He was like a rookie last season, to my way of thinking, because he had had very little game experience ... He got a lot of it last year — he started three games at outside linebacker in pre-season and the first nine games of the regular season at inside linebacker. He might have started all 16 games if we hadn't made a schematic change at that point. We didn't feel it would be fair to ask him to play outside linebacker at that stage. He improved throughout the season and, if somebody thinks he's going to come in here this year and take his job away from John, I think he's going to have a helluva tough fight because one thing about John, he came to work — he's a hard worker ... I'm looking forward to having him back because I think he's going to be a better football player than he was a year ago" ... A special teams standout his first two years, Dorsey started the season opener against

Houston (Sept. 7) at left inside linebacker, stepping in for the injured Randy Scott, then started the next eight at right inside linebacker, replacing Brian Noble, transferred to the weak side outside position for the first nine weeks of the season ... Registered a team-leading 10 unassisted tackles in his starting debut vs. Oilers in '86 opener and shared team honors with 7 solo stops the following week vs. New Orleans ... Also had 9 unassisted tackles vs. Detroit in Game Six Oct. 12 ... Closed out season as fifth-ranking tackler on defensive platoon with 54 solo tackles ... Also had 21 assists, broke up one pass and recovered 2 fumbles ... Led special teams in tackles each of his first two seasons, pacing the kamikazes as a rookie in 1984 with 19 unassisted tackles and 16 assists and again in 1985 with 18 solos ... Now has played in 48 consecutive games, one of longest streaks on current roster.

COLLEGE: Voted "Defensive Player of the Year" in the Yankee Conference as both a junior and senior at Connecticut, averaging nearly 170 tackles per season ... Also first team All-America (Division 1-AA) as a senior ... Four-year starter, first two at defensive end before moving to linebacker ... Gary Ellerson - 42

RUNNING BACK • WISCONSIN • 3RD YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 220 • BORN: 7/17/63 • (ACQ: D-7B, '85)

PRO: Slowed by injuries in 1986 after finishing his rookie, 1985 season impressively by leading Packers in rushing in each of the last two games that year ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, assessing Ellerson's '86 performance, observed, "Gary had multiple small things wrong with him last year that hampered him. He did not develop to the point that we thought that he would. I still have a lot of confidence in him. I think that he is a very, very talented running back" ... Started six games overall, five of them in succession, beginning with the Cincinnati contest at Milwaukee Oct. 5 ... Had best day of season in the latter, rushing for 52 yards in 18 attempts and catching 3 passes for 67 yards ... Closed out season as Packer's No. 4 rusher with 287 yards in 90 carries, a 3.2 average ... Also caught 12 passes for 130 yards and averaged 22.0 yards for 7 kickoff returns ... Latter included Packers' longest KOR of the season, a 57-yarder against the Giants in season finale at East Rutherford, N.J. (Dec. 20) ... Had best game as a professional against Detroit Lions at Pontiac, MI, Silverdome as a rookie in 1985 (Dec. 15), gaining 72 yards in 8 rushing attempts ... Punctuated that effort with a 37-yard touchdown run ... Rushed for 57 yards in 9 attempts at Tampa in the season finale a week later ... Closed out that season with team's best rushing average, 6.4, while gaining 205 yards in only 32 attempts ... Also made presence felt on special teams, making 4 solo tackles, adding 4 assists and recovering one fumble.

COLLEGE: Led Big Ten in kickoff returns in 1982 with a 24.3 average for 15 runbacks and was Wisconsin's fourth-leading rusher with 326 yards in 62 carries (a 5.2 average) ... Began Badger career as a split end ... Sat out senior season at Wisconsin (1984) because of scholastic difficulties.

WIDE RECEIVER • TEXAS CHRISTIAN U. • 6TH YEAR

HT: 5-9½ • WT: 165 • BORN: 11/11/58 • (ACQ: D-12, '82)

PRO: Easily one of professional football's swiftest humans, the diminutive Texan had the most productive season of his National Football League career in 1986 despite suffering a broken left ankle in Game 12 at Chicago (Nov. 23) which forced him to miss last four games of the year ... Still emerged with 49 receptions in his second season as a starter, five more than he made over the full 16-game route in 1985 ... Had most prolific afternoon of the season — and of his pro career — in nationally televised "Monday Night Football" appearance against Bears in Green Bay Sept. 22, making 9 catches for 99 yards ... Those 9 receptions also represented a single game season high for a Packer wide receiver in '86 ... Later had a 2-touchdown day against Tampa Bay at Milwaukee Nov. 16 in his last pre-injury start, making 4 catches for 77 yards ... One of those four was a 53-yard collaboration with quarterback Randy Wright, Epps' longest of the season ... Has made strong recovery from the injury and is expected to be at full speed when season opens ... Shared runnerup scoring honors for team (behind Al Del Greco) with Paul Ott Carruth and James Lofton at 24 points ... Had Packers' longest reception of 1985 season, a 63-yard hookup with quarterback Lynn Dickey which triggered go-ahead touchdown in a 27-17, come-from-behind Green Bay victory ... Finished afternoon with 6 catches for 118 yards, which remains his best yardage day as a pro ... Also had Packers' longest punt return of '85 season, the same day, a 46-yard effort ... Later completed a sweep of team "longest" honors by making team's longest kickoff return of the season, a 48-yard venture against Miami Dec. 8 ... Former TCU star started the last 4 games of the '84 season following an injury to John Jefferson, catching 14 passes for 233 yards and 3 TDs over that span ... Posted a 16.7-yard average per catch overall, second only to Lofton's team-leading 22.0, in finishing year with 26 receptions for 435 yards ... His biggest moment of that '84 season came against Bears in Chicago Dec. 9 when he gathered in "Hail Mary" pass from Rich Campbell in last minute of play, eluded defender Terry Schmidt and sprinted into end zone with what proved to be winning touchdown in a 20-14 victory over the Bears ... It was a 43-yard maneuver, second longest reception of the season for Epps, who earlier had pulled in a 56-yard throw against Lions (Nov. 22) ... Voted Packer "Rookie of the Year" in 1982 when he posted team-leading average of 22.6 yards reception (10 catches for 226 yards) and 2 TDs ... Also finished as ninth ranking punt returner in the National Football Conference ... Emerged as No. 6 punt returner in NFC in 1983 (a 9.0-yard average for 36 runbacks), highlighting his efforts with longest PR of the season in the NFC, a 90-yard TD run which keyed a 55-14 Packer triumph over Tampa Bay (Oct. 2) ... The 321st player chosen in the '82 draft, the Atlanta, TX, native overcame massive odds to make the Packer roster ... Following the '82 season, he starred in another sport — track — running what was then the fifth fastest 60-yard dash in the history of American track (6.07 seconds) in a meet at Oklahoma City while competing for Texas Christian in his final year of collegiate track eligibility.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at TCU ... Had 100-yard kickoff return for TD as a freshman ... Finished second in 200 meters in '82 NCAA outdoor track championships with a 20.1 clocking ... Also ran 10.1 in 100 meters during collegiate career ... Has bachelor of science degree in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Given name Phillip Earl Epps ... Married (Ceca) and father of daughter, Rachel Renee (born 9-22-84) ... All-state football selection at Atlanta, TX, High School, where he led football team to district title with 11-1 record ... Set national age group record in track as high school freshman with 21.0 time in 220-yard dash ... Hobbies: All sports, reading, music ... Sales representative for an auto dealer in off-season ... Hometown and residence: Fort Worth, TX.

HT: 6-3 • WT: 210 • BORN: 3/25/60 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: Former University of Wisconsin standout joined Packers as a free agent in mid-season of 1986 (Oct. 21) and made an immediate impact ... Registered 2 sacks in his first appearance, felling 49er quarterback Mike Moroski twice in San Francisco game at Milwaukee County Stadium (Oct. 26) ... Went on to share time at strong safety with Tiger Greene in late season, manning the position in the second half of each of the last four games ... Closed out the year with 26 solo tackles and 11 assists, impressive production in relation to total playing time ... Also broke up one pass and recovered a fumble ... Made additional contributions on special teams, collecting 3 unassisted tackles and assisting on 4 others ... Released by Tampa Bay late in '86 pre-season after starting 10 games for Buccaneers in 1985, his first season in the National Football League ... Played in all 16 games, amassing 70 tackles, including 3 QB sacks, and intercepting 5 passes ... Also broke up 7 other passes ... Had two intercepts vs. Chicago (10/6) for only double interception game by any Buc in 1985 ... Tied teammate Jeremiah Castille for team lead with eight takeaways (three fumble recoveries in addition to the 5 interceptions) ... Started first eight games of the season at strong safety for Bucs, then spent next four games as backup to Craig Curry before regaining starting status for final two games ... Had joined Tampa Bay after three years in the USFL, where he won all-league honors ... Signed with USFL's Michigan Panthers in 1983 prior to NFL draft ... Later drafted by NFL's New Orleans in eighth round ... Bucs subsequently acquired Greenwood's rights from Saints on Aug. 30, 1985 in exchange for a third round draft choice in 1986 ... He started TB's season opener one week later ... Played two seasons for Michigan (1983-84), helping Panthers win '83 USFL championship, then joined Oakland Invaders for '85 spring season following Michigan-Oakland merger.

COLLEGE: One of Wisconsin's most prominent athletes in recent years, he played defensive back, punted and won a Big Ten high jump title while a Badger ... Started at strong safety for most of his four seasons (1979-82) and saw action in every game, harvesting 226 career tackles and 10 interceptions, including one for a touchdown ... Consensus all-Big Ten selection after both junior and senior seasons ... A decathlete on Badger track team, he won Big Ten outdoor high jump with a 7-0 performance ... Also had a career best 14-3 in pole vault ... Physical education major.

PERSONAL: Given name David Mark Greenwood ... Outstanding football-track performer at Park Falls, WI, Lincoln High School ... Won six state titles as a prep ... First Wisconsin high school athlete to ever, high jump 7 feet ... Married (Julie) and father of two daughters, Molly (born 2/2/83) and Anna (born 8/26/86) ... Favorite hobbies: Golf and tennis ... Active in behalf of Pro Athletes for Christ Ministry in Tampa ... Residence: Tampa.

Ron Hallstrom - 65

OFFENSIVE GUARD • IOWA • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 290 • BORN: 6/11/59 • (ACQ: D-1, '82)

PRO: Became acknowledged leader of the offensive line in 1986 with his elevation to offensive captain by Head Coach Forrest Gregg ... Also the elder statesman of that unit in the first half of the season while veteran Karl Swanke was recovering from knee surgery, the massive Moline, IL native impressed Gregg with his response to the challenge ... "Ron Hallstrom took a great responsibility on his shoulders," the Packer coach noted. "Here he was — a five-year player and, until Karl Swanke came back, he found himself in the position of being the oldest player on the offensive line and the only one — other than Mark Cannon — who had had any experience. Ron sort of mothered these guys — he took responsibility for 'em. And I think he took responsibility to the point where, at times, it may have affected his own play. But he stepped in and I asked Ron to be captain, and he responded. He did everything he could to create a positive feeling among those offensive linemen and among the whole offensive football team ... I know one thing — he always gave an honest effort, and I respect that ... I thought Ron had a good year" ... The Packers' incumbent at right guard since Game Four of the '84 season, he started all 16 games in '86, thereby running his consecutive game streak to 64 ... Moved into starting lineup at Dallas Sept. 30, 1984, replacing Syd Kitson at right guard ... His performance later prompted Gregg to observe: "As far as our right guard position is concerned, that issue is settled" ... The Packer coach's predilection for athletes of generous dimensions in the offensive line moved him to start the 6-foot-6, 290-pound ex-Hawkeye, the Packers' first round selection in the 1982 NFL draft ... Hallstrom responded by developing into a strong run blocker and effective pass protector ... Had been listed as a backup at tackle on the depth chart going into the '84 season after beginning his pro career at guard two years earlier ... Hampered in early weeks of 1985 season by ankle injury that forced him to miss a portion of the league opener against the Patriots at New England ... "That injury really set Ron back" Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler later observed, "because he didn't start going again until about mid-season, then finished strong" ... Returned to starting lineup in Game Two vs. New York Giants and started last 15 games ... Played in seven of nine regular season games during strike-interrupted '82 season, his rookie year ... Also appeared in Super Bowl Tournament games against Cardinals and Cowboys ... Was backup to Swanke at LT in 1983 and played in all 16 games.

COLLEGE: Earned AP and UPI all-Big Ten honors as senior at Iowa — his first year as an offensive lineman ... Played defensive tackle his freshman season at Iowa Central Junior College, earning second team All-America honors ... Also played DT in 1979 following transfer to Iowa ... Red-shirted in 1980, when he was moved to offensive tackle ... Made transition to offense with ease, rising to No. 1 guard entering '81 season, playing in all 11 games and starting for Hawkeyes in Rose Bowl ... Also invited to play in East-West Shrine game, Blue-Grey and Japan Bowl games.

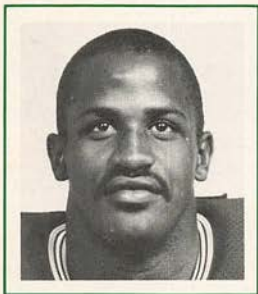

PERSONAL: Given name Ronald David Hallstrom ... Nickname: "Abbs" ... Married (Mary Pat) and father of a daughter, Emily Erin (born 10-31-86) ... Lettered twice in football at Moline, IL, High School ... Born in Holden, MA ... Hobbies: Hunting, fishing, golf, "baby bouncing" ... Spokesperson for Hemophiliac Association ... Timothy Harris - 97

LINEBACKER • MEMPHIS STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 245 • BORN: 9/10/64 • (ACQ: D-4A, '86)

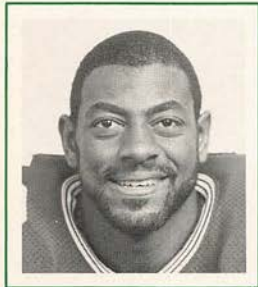

PRO: Blossoming swiftly after becoming a starter in the seventh game of the 1986 season, the towering Memphis State product became a fixture in the defense before the year was out, then proceeded to capture Packer "Rookie of the Year" honors in a runaway ... At season's end, Head Coach Forrest Gregg said of him: "The guy that probably made the biggest impact of all was Timothy Harris — he made an impact on our defensive football team ... When we installed Tim as a starting outside backer, we put Tiger Greene at strong safety and Kenny Stills at free safety ... that was the spark our defense needed. And I think that's why we improved so much after we put those people in — because all of a sudden our defense was playing with enthusiasm and intensity" ... Packer linebacker coach Dale Lindsey is convinced Harris "can be like Ted Hendricks if he wants to be and Hendricks was a pretty fair country football player ... Tim can be a Pro Bowler if he wants to, because he can do two things — play linebacker or defensive end — where most other players can only do one" ... Reminiscent of Hendricks in build as well as range and ability, Harris emerged as the defensive unit's "big play" leader despite playing only sparingly in the first six games ... Paced the platoon in sacks with eight, broke up 3 passes, forced two fumbles and recovered one ... Made an impressive starting debut at Cleveland (Oct. 19) ... Amassed 10 unassisted tackles, including one quarterback sack, and weighed in with 2 assists ... He also forced a second quarter fumble, recovered by teammate John Dorsey at midfield, which led to an Al Del Greco field goal that proved to be the eventual winning margin in a 17-14 victory — a win that ended a six-game Packer losing streak ... Later made such an impression on CBS broadcaster John Madden in the dramatic, 44-0 victory over Detroit that Madden announced he was naming Harris to his "All-Thanksgiving Day" team ... Timothy's contributions that afternoon, on which he put heavy pressure on Lions quarterback Joe Ferguson, included a quarterback sack and a punt block converted into a Green Bay touchdown when John Simmons made an end zone recovery of the football ... He also broke up a Ferguson pass ... Closed out season with a flourish against the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants, sacking quarterback Phil Simms twice and collecting 6 total tackles ... Registered 51 tackles overall in his nine starts in addition to 16 assists.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Memphis State, he set a school record for most tackles for lost yardage in a season (17 in 1983) and in a career (47 for 270) ... Also set MS mark for most sacks in a game (3 vs. Vanderbilt in '83) ... Had 17-tackle performance against Ole Miss. in '84. Co-captain as a senior ... Selected to play in Senior and Hula Bowls.

PERSONAL: Given name Timothy David Harris ... Single ... Attended Woodlawn High in Birmingham, AL, later transferring to Memphis Catholic High ... Credited with 22 solo tackles in 1981 Jaycee Bowl ... Also played varsity basketball, averaging 15 points and 20 rebounds as a senior at Memphis Catholic ... Home town: Birmingham ... Residence: Memphis, TN.

WIDE RECEIVER • GEORGIA TECH • 9TH YEAR
HT: 6-½ • WT: 206 • BORN: 7/30/57 • (ACQ: D-1, '79)

PRO: Previously one of the National Football League's premier running backs, he made a dual conversion in 1986 — to wide receiver and special teams standout — with impressive ease ... Neither development came as a surprise to Tom Coughlin, the Packers receiver coach. "Eddie Lee was able to do it," Coughlin said with obvious respect, "because he is a football player" ... Ivery emerged as the Packers' No. 4 pass-catcher with 31 receptions for 385 yards and one touchdown—despite missing first four weeks of regular season with a neck injury suffered in third game of pre-season at Cincinnati (August 23)... His production lifted him into 11th place on the Packers' all-time receiving list with 162 catches... He already ranked among the club's all-time top 10 (8th) in rushing... Had only 4 rush attempts in '86, good for 25 yards... The latter padded his career rushing total to 2,933 yards in 667 attempts (a 4.4 average)... On special teams, No. 40 closed out the year as the Packers' No. 1 kamikaze... He showed the way in solo tackles with 14, two more than runnerup Elbert Watts... and also registered 4 assists... Led Packers in rushing in 1985 for the third time in his pro career (636 yards in 132 attempts, a 4.8 average)... Also caught more passes than any other Packer RB in '85 (28)... Had his best rushing effort of that season in a 27-17 victory over the Vikings at Minneapolis, gaining 111 yards in 15 carries... Later rushed for 109 yards in the 21-0 "Snow Bowl" win over Tampa Bay in Green Bay's Lambeau Field (Dec. 1), a day on which he and fellow running back Gerry Ellis both rushed for 100 yards (Ellis had 101 in 9 attempts)... It marked the first such achievement by a Packer duo since 1980 when the same pair turned the trick vs. Minnesota... The versatile veteran could have been a good choice for the NFL's "Comeback Player of the Year" in 1984... After voluntarily sitting out the last eight games of the 1983 season because of a personal problem, he subsequently was sidelined in the early weeks of the '84 season because of difficulties with his left knee, on which he had undergone surgery in both 1979 and '81... Erupted from that long inactivity in Game Nine vs. Detroit, rushing for 116 yards in only 9 carries to key a 41-9 Packer rout of the Lions... Spiced that performance, best of the year by a Packer RB, with a 49-yard sortie, later to rank as the second longest run from scrimmage of the '84 season by a Packer... Ivery later started the last five games of the season at tailback, taking over there when Gerry Ellis moved to fullback to replace the injured Jessie Clark, and emerged as Packers' leading rusher in three of them... Despite missing those first five games, he closed out as Packers' s No. 2 rusher (552 yards in 99 attempts and a team-leading 5.6-yard average)... Comebacks are something of a habit with the talented Thomson, GA, native, who suffered a knee injury in his very first regular season start at Chicago in 1979 and was sidelined for the season... He rebounded from that misfortune in 1980 to surface as the Packers' total offense leader in 1980, rushing for 831 yards and setting a then team record for receptions by a running back with 50... A year later, he again was felled by knee injury in the opening game of the '81 season, also in Chicago, and was lost for the year... Ivery then proceeded to mount a second comeback in 1982, scoring nine rushing TDs during strike-abbreviated season to share National Football Conference honors with Wendell Tyler... Also led Packers in rushing (453 yards in 127 carries)... Later played major role in Packers' first round victory over St. Louis in Super Bowl Tournament, scoring two TDs and claiming game rushing honors (67 yards in 13 carries)... Registered his best rushing day of that season in opener vs. Rams (109 yards in 17 carries)... Posted best receiving day to date vs. Bucs at Tampa Oct. 12, 1980, catching 11 passes for 128 yards... Was team's leading rusher and receiver for '79 pre-season as rookie before suffering year-ending knee injury in season opener vs. Bears.

THE PLAYERS

COLLEGE: Set what was then all-time, NCAA single game rushing record as a senior, amassing 356 yards vs. Air Force... Finished eighth in balloting for Heisman Trophy that year... Established Georgia Tech records of 609 carries and 3,517 yards... Team captain and represented football squad on prestigious Tech Athletic Board... Industrial management major.

PERSONAL: Given name Eddie Lee Ivery... Married (Anna) and the father of two Tauvia (born 9-13-80) and Eddie Lee, Jr. (born 3-3-83)... Prep All-America at Thomson, GA, High School... Hometown: Thomson, GA... Residence: Decatur, GA.

Ezra Johnson - 90

DEFENSIVE END • MORRIS BROWN • 11TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 265 • BORN: 10/2/55 • (ACQ: D-1B, '77)

PRO: The Packers' all-time sack leader, he enters his eleventh season as oldest member of the defensive unit in terms of Packer service and elder statesman of the team overall ... Fellow defender John Anderson, a 10-year pro, is next in team and defense seniority ... Employed primarily as a pass rusher in '86, he shared club runnerup honors in sacks with Alphonso Carreker at 3½ ... Holds Packer career sack record with 81 ... Had 7 unassisted tackles overall in '86, with one assist ... Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski, long impressed with No. 90's ability to "play hurt," says of him: "I still consider Ezra one of the premier pass rushers in the NFL. To me, he's a leader-type. Other people look up to him. I've never seen him quit in a game and I've never seen him quit in practice. That's just the way he is" ... Paced the defense in quarterback sacks in 1985 with 9½, following recovery from the second back surgery of career, and the defensive line in unassisted tackles (47) ... Also led platoon in forced fumbles with three, recovering two ... Despite seeing only limited action in 1984—following his first of two back operations—Johnson finished the season as Packers' No. 2 sack artist with 7 for 55 yards in losses ... Had biggest year in 1978, his second pro season, when he registered 20½ sacks to finish as NFL runnerup to Detroit's Al "Bubba" Baker ... Started all 16 games that season and sacked Lion quarterback Greg Landry five times to key Packers' opening day, 13-7 victory over Detroit ... Climaxed big personal season with outstanding performance for NFC in Pro Bowl ... Ranked among NFC leaders in 1983 with 14½ sacks and led defensive line in solo tackles with 86 ... Also was team sack leader in strike-shortened '82 season with five ... Later was a major contributor in '82 Super Bowl Tournament, registering a pair of sacks in Packers' opening playoff victory over St. Louis, then recovering a fumble in second game at Dallas ... Led defensive line in solo tackles with 53, including 9 sacks which gave him a share of team lead in the latter category ... Shared duty with Casey Merrill at right end in 1981 but started all 9 games in 1982 ... Handicapped by injury in '79, when he sprained left ankle in Game Five and was sidelined for five weeks ... Was special teams standout as a rookie in 1977, blocking 4 kicks (2 FGs, 2 PAT) ... Came to Packers from Oakland in 1977 draft as final compensation awarded Green Bay for linebacker Ted Hendricks, who had left Packers to sign with Raiders in 1975 ... Was Packers' second round choice (behind Mike Butler) in '77 draft.

COLLEGE: Named to a number of black All-America teams in '76, including prestigious Pittsburgh

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • SAN DIEGO STATE • 1ST YEAR

HT: 6-5 • WT: 280 • BORN: 7/19/63 • (ACQ: D-4B, '86)

PRO: Spent rookie, 1986 season on non-football illness/reserve list because of a heart condition ... Since has received medical clearance to play in 1987 and is expected to challenge for a job in the offensive line ... "We have confidence in Dan," says Head Coach Forrest Gregg, "and we think he is going to be a good football player" ... Impressed the Packer coach with his pass protection skills going into the '86 draft. "Pass-blocking is one of his strong suits," Gregg said of Knight at that point, "because, at San Diego State, they didn't get much of a chance to run the ball ... What we liked about him is his temperament. He was a defensive lineman at Boise State before he transferred to San Diego State" ... Has ideal size for his position, along with good speed (4.97 in the '40') for one of his bulk.

COLLEGE: Started 11 of 12 games at right guard for San Diego State in 1984, then replaced graduated Rich Moran (now a Packer) as starter at RT as a senior in 1985 ... Mark Lee - 22

CORNERBACK • WASHINGTON • 8TH YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 189 • BORN: 3/20/58 • (ACQ: D-2, '80)

PRO: A talented and tough-minded athlete who ranks among the premier cornerbacks in professional football, he had the finest year of his seven-season career in 1986 ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, perhaps Lee's biggest fan, summed up No. 22's contributions by declaring, "Mark Lee had a tremendous year. He was steady as a rock all year long and he was the one guy—if you asked me who played well enough to win every week ... defensively, overall, Mark Lee might be the guy ... I really felt it would mean a Pro Bowl performance for him.

Unfortunately, it did not work out. When a team doesn't win, a lot of times that doesn't happen. But it doesn't take away from Mark's year—he had a great year, and he was the leader on our defensive team" ... The latter attribute was recognized early when the Packer coach named Lee defensive captain at the start of the '86 season ... The eight-year pro crowned his efforts with nine interceptions, only one fewer than league-leader Ronnie Lott of San Francisco and also just one theft short of tying the Packer single season record of 10, set by Irv Comp in 1943 ... Now ranks as career interception leader among "active" Packers with 24 ... Those 9 intercepts were the most by a Packer cornerback since 1978, when Willie Buchanon had the same number ... Lee made 2 of those steals against the arch rival Bears at Chicago Nov. 23 ... Also broke up 2 other passes and recovered a fumble ... Registered 47 solo tackles overall and embellished this total with 14 assists ... Has broken up more passes over the past five seasons, 56, than any other Packer defender ... Led Green Bay's defense in this category—officially listed as "Pass Deflects" for five consecutive seasons—1981 through 1985 ... Had a career high 17 PDs in 1981 while sharing team interception honors with six ... Again claimed the honor in 1982, a strike-shortened 9-game season, with 8 and in 1983, with 7, then shared laurels with strong safety Mark Murphy in 1984, each being credited with 15 ... Again had a team-leading 7 in 1985 ... Has been starter at left cornerback since opening game of '81 season ... Following '82 season, he triggered a major opportunity for Packers in fourth quarter of the second and final playoff game vs. Dallas (Jan. 16, 1983), intercepting a Danny White pass and returning it 22 yards for a touchdown which temporarily cut the Cowboys' lead to 30-26 (Dallas subsequently won, 37-26) ... Emerged as Packers' leading punt returner in '81, running one back 94 yards for a TD against Giants at Milwaukee — longest punt return in the NFL that season and second longest in Green Bay's league history ... Has not been employed on kick returns since 1984 ... Underwent surgery in March of 1985 to correct disc problem ... Has excellent (4.4) speed in '40' ... Handicapped in rookie season by hamstring injury suffered opening day of training camp.

COLLEGE: Ran back three punts for touchdowns same season for Washington's Huskies ... UPI second team All-America selection as senior.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Anthony Lee ... Single ... Has seven brothers and five sisters ... Graduate of Hanford, CA, High School ... Western movie buff ... Hometown: Hanford, CA ... Residence: Bellevue, WA.

LINEBACKER • NOTRE DAME • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 224 • BORN: 10/18/57 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: Cat-quick former 49er and USFL performer joined Packers as a free agent Oct. 1, 1986 and proceeded to play himself into the starting lineup ... Started last 7 games of the season, beginning with the Washington Redskins contest in Green Bay Nov. 9, and consistently made his presence felt ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, impressed with Leopold's efforts, praised his contributions, declaring, "Bobby Leopold ... became a very effective linebacker for us last year and played well — did an outstanding job" ... Closed out the season with 33 solo tackles, including 1½ sacks, and added 12 assists ... Also made one interception

... Made 3 other tackles and 2 assists on special teams coverage units ... Originally drafted in the eighth round by the 49ers in 1980. Named to league's all-rookie team ... Played in all 19 games for the Prospectors in 1981, helping them win Super Bowl XVI ... Also played in 2 playoff games following '83 season ... Waived prior to the 1984 season, he joined the New Jersey Generals of the USFL, for whom he was a starting outside linebacker in 1984 and 1985 ... Played for Packer linebacker coach Dale Lindsey while with the Generals.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Notre Dame ... Made 6 career interceptions and returned 3 for touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Given name Leroy Joseph Leopold ... Married (Myrtle) ... Played prep football at Lincoln High School, Port Arthur, TX ... Home town: Port Arthur ... Residence: Carrollton, TX.

TIGHT END • TEXAS A&M • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 250 • BORN: 5/5/61 • (ACQ: D-6, '85)

PRO: A quality athlete who beefed himself up to 250 pounds over the off-season, (from 237), the multi-muscled Texan provides excellent depth at tight end, a position also staffed by Ed West and Dan Ross ... Caught only 2 passes in 1986 but both were for touchdowns—the first a 4-yard pitch from Vince Ferragamo vs. the Vikings at Minneapolis Sept. 28 and the second a lunging, acrobatic grab of a deflected, 3-yard pass from Randy Wright vs. the 49ers at Milwaukee County Stadium Oct. 26 ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg notes, "Mark Lewis is still a young guy who missed most of his first year (1985) because of injury ... Last year he was active all year and played some. We started him one football game (at Tampa Dec. 14) and as we go back and look at the film, we see that Mark Lewis did some very, very fine things during the year. So there'll be some good competition at the position" ... Played a prominent role on special teams, registering 8 solo tackles and 2 assists while playing in all 16 games.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at Texas A&M ... Suffered from knee ligament problem at beginning of sophomore season and was out remainder of the year following surgery ... Industrial education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Joseph Lewis ... Single ... Was all-city, all-district, all-state and All-America at Kashmere High School in Houston, TX ... Once caught three passes for three touchdowns (and a total of 208 yards) in one game ... Hometown: Houston.

Charles Martin - 94

NOSE TACKLE • LIVINGSTON • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 280 • BORN: 8/31/59 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: Gained pre-eminence at nose tackle in 1986—he started 11 games overall—and had best year of his professional career to date ... Led defensive line in solo tackles with 33 and was involved in 52 stops overall ... Also broke up one pass and forced a fumble ... His season-long performance evoked praise from Head Coach Forrest Gregg, who said, "Charlie Martin had a good year—played very, very well. He earned the starting spot at nose tackle ... He'll be back there this year and I'm sure he's going to stand firm in place. He's going to have people challenging him but, at the same time, Charlie might be hard to move out" ... Started nine consecutive games, beginning with the Cincinnati contest at Milwaukee Oct. 5 and ending with the Thanksgiving Day game against Detroit at Pontiac, MI, Nov. 29 ... Sat out next 2 games—vs. Vikings Dec. 7 and vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 14—after being suspended by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle for what was termed a late hit on Bears quarterback Jim McMahon at Chicago Nov. 23 ... Returned to roster to face Giants in season finale Dec. 20 ... A tireless, all-out hustler, he started first 10 games at nose tackle in 1985 and shared position with Donnie Humphrey in all 16 games ... Was involved in more tackles — 60 — than any other Packer defensive lineman ... Registered 33 unassisted stops, second only to Ezra Johnson's 42 along the defensive line, and 27 assists ... His production included a pair of quarterback sacks ... Also caused 2 fumbles and recovered one ... Likewise ranked among Packers' premier special teams players, emerging with 10 unassisted tackles and 6 assists ... Described by Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski as "the hardest worker in practice and in a game that I've ever coached ... Determination is his key—he's very determined. One thing about Charlie—we can play him at nose tackle, at end or as an inside pass rusher—and he'll give you an all-out effort all the time... It all goes back to the fact that you play the way you practice... Charlie never takes it easy"... Played in all 16 games as a Packer rookie in 1984 and started two (vs. Seattle Oct. 21 and vs. Detroit Oct. 28)... Began pro career in United States Football League with Birmingham, which drafted him in 1983... Started for Stallions the entire season, but a hand injury suffered during his first season handicapped him in 1984—he was released after three games.

COLLEGE: Voted MVP in Gulf-South Conference his senior year at Livingston University... All-Gulf South Conference Selection in 1981 and '82... Also named to Small College All-America first team in both '81 and '82... Industrial education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Charles Milton Martin... Nickname: "Too Mean"... Married (Natalie) and father of two children, Charisse (born 4-10-77) and Charles (born 1-10-86)... Favorite hobbies: Weight training, motorcycle riding... Also plays softball for his Shades Mountain Baptist Church team... Completing education in off-season at University of Alabama-Birmingham... Attended Canton, GA, Cherokee High School, where he won impressive total of 16 letters—four each in football, basketball, soccer and track.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/starts — 1984 (16-2); 1985 (16-10); 1986 (14-11).

HT: 6-4 • WT: 211 • BORN: 7/28/63 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: Suffered broken jaw during training camp and spent first 12 weeks of the regular season on injured reserve... Appeared in last four games of the season and made 4 catches, good for 87 yards and an impressive 21.8-yard average, top average for any member of the receiving corps... Made longest reception of the season in '86 finale, a 34-yarder against the eventual Super Bowl champion Giants at East Rutherford, N.J. (Dec. 20) that set up a 34-yard Al Del Greco field goal which pared the New Yorkers' halftime lead to a modest 24-17... Has excellent size (6-4 and 211 pounds) and respectable speed (4.65 in the '40")... Joined Packers as tight end (signed May 2, 1986).

COLLEGE: Had a 17.2-yard average for 9 receptions as tight end during senior season... Transferred from Los Angeles City College in 1984... Played quarterback for two years at LACC, throwing for 1,287 yards and rushing for 537 more as a sophomore... Also began Fresno State tenure as a QB in '84, later was moved to receiver... HT: 6-5 • WT: 242 • BORN: 1/9/63 • (ACQ: D-9, '86)

PRO: Spent 1986 regular season on injured reserve after suffering foot injury during training camp... Expected to be contender for employment at outside linebacker, based on his showing in voluntary workouts in May of this year... Possessor of excellent size (6-5 and 242) and speed (4.65 in '40")... Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski says of him: "He has good potential on the outside as a pass rusher—somebody who can come up and hit."

COLLEGE: Played outside LB'er at USC and also at defensive end when injuries struck Trojans... Became a starter midway through his junior year ... Made big play in USC's 20-17 victory over Ohio State in 1985 Rose Bowl ... With OSU third-and-five at the USC 38-yard-line, he broke through to sack Buckeye quarterback Mike Tomczak for a 9-yard loss ... The play killed the OSU drive, the Buckeyes misfiring on fourth down, permitting the Trojans to run out the clock ... Earned honorable mention on PAC-10 All-Academic team as senior ... Business finance major with a 3.10 grade point average.

Rich Moran - 57

OFFENSIVE GUARD • SAN DIEGO ST. • 3RD YEAR

HT: 6-2½ • WT: 275 • BORN: 3/19/62 • (ACQ: D-3, '85)

PRO: Counted upon to be a major contender for starting status at guard in 1987 after missing most of the '86 season with a knee injury suffered on the Packers' very first offensive play of the year ... Injured in Sept. 7 opener vs. Houston, he returned to active roster for Thanksgiving Day game against Detroit (Nov. 27), in time to play in each of the last four games ... Had become a starter at left guard in eighth game of the 1985 season as a rookie following loss of Keith Uecker via knee surgery ... Appeared in all 16 games, playing on special teams' field goal and PAT-block units ... Blocked one FG attempt in that role, blunting a 44-yard attempt by Colts' Raul Allegre at Indianapolis (Oct. 27) ... A dedicated student of the game, he is described by Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler as "a good pulling guard" and an effective blocker for both the run and the pass ... One of the Packers' stronger athletes, he bench presses 425 pounds ... Was club's third round pick (second selection overall because they had dealt their No. 2 choice to Buffalo in the trade for the draft rights to Ken Ruettggers) in 1985 NFL draft.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter at San Diego State ... Recruited as a linebacker, he played offensive guard as a freshman in 1980, center in '81 and tackle in '83 and '84 ... Redshirted in 1982 because of a pinched nerve in the neck.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard James Moran ... Married (Lisa) and father of a daughter, Ashley Marie (born 8/31/86) ... Played five football positions at Foothill High School in Pleasanton, CA, and also lettered in wrestling ... Born in Mosco, Idaho ... Son of Jim Moran, who played offensive tackle for the New York Giants (1964-69) ... Rich's brother, Eric, is an offensive lineman for the Houston Oilers ... Favorite hobbies: Body surfing, basketball, water skiing ... Residence: Carlsbad, CA.

STRONG SAFETY • WEST LIBERTY STATE • 7TH YEAR

HT: 6-2 • WT: 201 • BORN: 4/22/58 • (ACQ: FA, '80)

PRO: The Packers' starting strong safety in 1984 and '85, he is back to bid for his old job after missing all of the '86 season because of a stress fracture of left foot ... Incurred the injury during training camp and was sidelined for the year ... Has made good recovery and is expected to be at full speed when '87 season opens ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, cheered by the knowledge of No. 37's return, observed, "I think our safety position (where Ken Stills Tiger Greene and Elbert Watts also are in evidence) is very, very solid, especially with Mark Murphy coming back" ... A classic competitor, the former free agent is an intense and intelligent athlete who has been a model of productivity ... Paced Packer defense in unassisted tackles in 1984 after stepping in at strong safety following injury to Johnnie Gray, his total including 2 quarterback sacks ... He also had 22 assists, 2 interceptions and shared team lead in knocking down opponent passes with Mark Lee at 15 ... Was involved in 102 tackles overall in '85, making 58 solo stops and adding 44 assists ... finishing as fourth-ranking tackler on defensive unit despite missing 2 games because of injuries ... Also registered 2 interceptions, returning one of them 50 yards for a touchdown vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Metrodome (Nov. 10) to seal a 27-17 Packer, come-from-behind victory and record his first pro TD ... Earlier had been a highly productive performer in 1983 after being installed at SS in Game Five following departure of Maurice Harvey and transfer of Gray to free safety ... Made more unassisted tackles (68) than any other member of the secondary except Gray ... Likewise made presence felt on special teams, registering 11 unassisted tackles ... Forged key interception in playoff game vs. St. Louis following 1982 season, returning it 22 yards to Cardinal 12-yard-line to set up Packers' fourth TD in a 41-16 victory ... Voted Packer "Rookie of the Year" by Wisconsin sports media in 1981 after injury to Gray thrust him into starting role in Game Ten ... Made three interceptions in seven starts, two of those thefts contributing directly to Green Bay victories over Giants and Bears ... First interception came in first pro start (vs. Giants Nov. 8, 1981) ... Spent all but one game of first season in 1980 on injured reserve after suffering broken hand in pre-season ... Activated for regular season finale vs. Detroit.

COLLEGE: Starter at strong safety (and football co-captain) at West Liberty State ... Has B.S. degree in business administration.

Tom Neville - 72

OFFENSIVE GUARD • FRESNO STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 295 • BORN: 9/4/61 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: Huge and personable Alaskan became a sudden starter as a rookie in 1986 when incumbent left guard Rich Moran went down with a knee injury on Packers' first offensive play of the season ... Neville (the name is pronounced Neh-VILL) stepped into the breach on the second play and started the remaining 15 games of the season, earning praise from Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler ... "Tom did an outstanding job of pass protection for a rookie," Wampfler said, "And he studies hard—he has his own beta machine at home and he takes video of our practices and games home and studies them on his own time. He also has good mental toughness. And he's good to coach—he listens to what you tell him and he applies it to the game" ... A 1985 graduate of Fresno State, he had a tryout with Seattle in '85, accepting Seahawks' contract offer over one from the Packers at the time because he had grown up as a Seattle fan in Alaska ... Released during pre-season, he was out of football during the regular season that year and subsequently signed with the Packers as a free agent on March 14, 1986 ... Reported a month early for preliminary work with a number of other rookie, free agent linemen and feels the early work was the key element in his eventual survival ... One of only two players to come out of Alaska high schools and play professional football (the other is Rocky Klier of the New York Jets).

Brian Noble - 91

LINEBACKER • ARIZONA STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 250 • BORN: 9/6/62 • (ACQ: D-5, '85)

PRO: An impact player since arriving upon the Green Bay scene in 1985, the swashbuckling Arizona State alumnus has become a major force on the Packer defense in just two seasons ... Most productive member of his platoon in 1986, he led the unit in both unassisted stops, with 82, and total tackles, with 113, his production including 2 quarterback sacks ... Also broke up one pass and forced a fumble ... An inside linebacker as a rookie in 1985, he was transferred to the weak side outside position at the start of the '86 season by Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski in a bid to improve the pass rush ...

Started first eight games there before being moved back inside for the last half of the season, Bobby Leopold taking over the outside position ... Will remain at weak side inside linebacker in 1987, according to Head Coach Forrest Gregg, who noted, "We moved Brian Noble around last year from inside to outside, and then back inside again. I think that somewhat hurt his development. He'll be inside this year, specifically inside, and we'll not fool with him because we think he's very talented and think he's going to be a great football player" ... Noble quickly entrenched himself as a starter as a rookie, replacing veteran George Cumby in Game Two of the '85 season ... Rewarded this vote of confidence by emerging as the No. 3 tackler on defensive platoon with 67 stops ... Was involved in 104 tackles overall, including 37 assists ... Punctuated his tackle total with 3 QB sacks ... Also broke up one pass and forced one fumble ... A strong performance in Packers' 1985 pre-season finale, when he was credited with 10 unassisted tackles in Bishop's Charities Game vs. the Jets, helped him win starting job two weeks later ... Went on to win selection to the Pro Football Writers' Association of America's NFL All-Rookie team ... Also was runaway winner of Packer "Rookie of the Year" honors, by vote of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media.

COLLEGE: Involved in 60 tackles as senior at Arizona State after sharing team lead in QB sacks as a junior with 8 ... Won first team junior college All-America honors at Fullerton, CA, J.C., in '82, setting schoolmarks for most sacks in a season (24) and a career (36) ... Fullerton was 18-3 during his two-year tenure and ranked among the top five junior college teams nationally ... Business administration major.

PERSONAL: Given name Brian David Noble ... Married (Cindy) and father of a daughter, Amanda (born 8-15-85) ... Employed as sales manager in father's plating business in Anaheim, CA, in off-season ... Lettered in football for three years and baseball for one in high school at Anaheim ... Played defensive end and also punted, averaging 42.5 yards per punt ... Youngest of four children, he has one brother and two sisters ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Hunting, fishing, wind surfing, basketball, off-road racing ... Hometown: Anaheim, CA.

PUNTER • VIRGINIA TECH • 2ND YEAR

HT: 6-0 • WT: 198 • BORN: 5/23/59 • (ACQ: FA, '86)

PRO: Handled punting duties for last three games of 1986 season after Don Bracken was sidelined by an elbow injury ... Shrugged off somewhat traumatic debut (he had his first punt blocked because of a protection breakdown, the center's snap soared over his head on the second) and went on to average a highly respectable 41.5 yards for 15 punts ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, taking note of the protection problems the newcomer had experienced (two other punts also were blocked), later observed, "It seemed like everything bad that could happen to a punter happened to him the first two times he lined up. And it certainly happened to him in every game after that. And, even with that, I thought he was poised, I thought he was confident, and I thought he did a good job" ... Renner had competed with Bracken and ex-Steeler Craig Colquitt during '86 pre-season, surviving until Aug. 26 before being waived ... Averaged 37.7 yards on 3 punts with a long of 43 yards ... Had previous tryouts with Minnesota Vikings in 1983, the Chicago Bears in '84 and the Pittsburgh Maulers of the USFL in '85.

Ken Ruettgers - 75

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • USC • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 285 • BORN: 8/20/62 • (ACQ: T-Buff., '85)

PRO: The man who wears Packer number 75, once the 14-year property of Hall of Famer Forrest Gregg, brought new distinction to that storied numeral in 1986, his second pro season ... Developed into one of the National Football League's premier offensive tackles, climaxing his personal year by "blanking" league sack champion Lawrence Taylor in the Packers' season finale at Giants Stadium (Dec. 20) ... "He just constantly improved," Gregg says of the massive Californian who now sports his old number. "By the end of the year, I thought Ken was playing great football" ... Jerry Wampfler, Packer offensive line coach, also is pleased with Ruettgers' rapid progress and dedicated approach. "He studies his opponents and keeps a book on them like the good ones do," Wampfler says, adding a simple but eloquent compliment, "He's a professional" ... Ruettgers, a model of modesty, says of himself, "I just think I'm a hard-worker, a blue-collar type guy. I work hard and try to do my best, try to win". I don't think I'm a great athlete. I think I make up for a lot of things I don't have through hard work" ... Became a Packer by way of a draft day trade with Buffalo in 1985, an exchange which sent Green Bay's first and second choices in 85 draft to Buffalo for the Bills' first round choice and a fourth round selection in 1986, the latter turning out to be linebacker Timothy Harris ... Gregg, delighted with that transaction, observed, "We got a guy that should be there and be outstanding for the next 10 years" ... The seventh player chosen overall, Ruettgers shared time with veteran Karl Swanke for eight of the last nine games of the 1985 season, then started the season finale at Tampa after Swanke suffered a knee injury in Game 15 vs. Lions ... Earlier had stepped in as starter at LT in '85 season opener vs. Patriots when Swanke was moved to RT, replacing Greg Koch, who had been pressed into service at right guard following an injury to Ron Hallstrom.

COLLEGE: Co-captained Trojans as senior and played in Japan Bowl ... Was a reserve guard from 1980 through 1982 before switching to tackle in 1983 ... Limited to six minutes' playing time as a freshman by injuries (a broken hand and torn cartilage in right knee) ... Business administration major.

PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth F. Ruettgers ... Nickname: "Colonel" ... Married (Sheryl) ... Real estate appraiser in off-season ... Volunteer in "Just Say No" anti-drugs campaign ... All-sectional offensive and defensive lineman at Graces High School (Bakersfield) ... Also played center and forward on basketball team, threw shot and discus for the track team and was a member of the golf team ... Hometown and residence: Bakersfield, CA.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts — 1985 (16-2): 1986 (16-16).

Randy Scott - 55

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 228 • BORN: 1/31/59 • (ACQ: FA, '81)

PRO: Intense, highly combative Georgian consistently has been one of defensive unit's most productive performers since becoming a starter in 1983 ... Only one defender (fellow linebacker Brian Noble) was involved in more tackles last season than the 28-year-old Alabama alumnus ... Figured in 96 overall, making 61 solo stops and contributing 35 assists ... Also forced one fumble and recovered one ... A leader by example, he had his best pro season in 1985, when he paced the defense in both solo (98) and unassisted (53) tackles ... The former total remains the highest such aggregate by a Packer since 1983 ... Scott's

2 interceptions, one pass deflection, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries ... His leadership and competitive intensity were formally recognized by Head Coach Forrest Gregg in early October when he named No. 55 defensive captain for the season ... Gregg appreciatively observed at that point, "Every time I look over at Randy when he's on the sidelines, there's blood on his face — and it's always his blood" ... Finished as team's No. 2 tackler in 1984 with 89 unassisted stops, only five fewer than overall leader Mark Murphy ... Signed as an unheralded free agent in 1981, he stepped in for the injured Rich Wingo at left inside linebacker late in strike-interrupted, 1982 season and became immediate standout ... Was so impressive in a six-game starting stint (including 2 playoff games), he was named starter at the position going into the '83 season, the defensive coaches' rating system having shown him to have been the most productive player on the platoon for the time he played ... Suffered knee injury in '83 season opener at Houston, however, and was sidelined for 10 weeks ... Re-claimed starting role for last four games of season and also started all 16 games in 1984 ... Was standout in Super Bowl Tournament following '82 season, leading defense in tackles with 24 unassisted stops, capping his surge with a brilliant, 17-tackle performance in the Packers' final playoff against Dallas ... Was major contributor on special teams as a rookie in '81, emerging as second-ranking tackler with 17 solo stops.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Alabama ... Leading tackler in Crimson Tide's Sugar Bowl victory over Arkansas (10 tackles) ... Has degree in marketing.

PERSONAL: Given name Randolph Charles Scott ... Nickname: Randy ... Single ... Played prep football at Columbia High School (Decatur, GA) ... Once had 15 tackles, 12 assists, and recovered 2 fumbles in one game ... Also earned letters in soccer and track ... Hobbies: Cliff diving and fishing ... Hometown: Decatur, GA ... Residence: Atlanta, GA.

DEFENSIVE BACK • SMU • 7TH YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 192 • BORN: 12/1/58 • (ACQ: W-Cinc., '86)

PRO: Joined Packers late in 1986 season, after being claimed on waivers from Cincinnati and proved solid contributor to the cause over the last six games, primarily on special teams ... Made 3 solo tackles and 5 assists on coverage units and also recovered a blocked punt (by Timothy Harris) Detroit Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27) for a touchdown ... Also registered 3 unassisted tackles as an extra defensive back ... Previously had been credited with 16 unassisted tackles, including one quarterback sack, before being placed on waivers by Bengals ... Had been third round draft choice of Cincinnati (the 64th player selected in 1981), when Packers' Forrest Gregg was Bengals' head coach ... Shoulder injuries limited his activity during his first two seasons ... Returned an interception 43 yards for a TD vs. Buffalo to highlight his '84 season ... Played in all 16 games in both '83 and '84, averaging 6.9 yards on 25 punt returns and 22.6 yards on 14 kickoff returns in '83 ... Spent the first five weeks of the 1985 season on injured reserve with a knee problem, subsequently returning to play in the last nine games.

COLLEGE: All-America selection at SMU in 1979 and '80 ... Holds school career record for interceptions with 17, one short of the Southwest Conference record.

PERSONAL: Given name John Christopher Simmons ... Attended Little Rock, AR, Parkview High School ... WIDE REC./KICK RET. • MESA (CO.) COL. • 3RD YEAR
HT: 5-9 1/4 • WT: 180 • BORN: 11/5/62 • (ACQ: D-4, '85)

PRO: Stamped himself as one of pro football's most explosive and electrifying performers in 1986 ... Finishing among the National Football League's leaders in all-purpose yardage with 1,617, he not only closed out the season among the top ten punt and kickoff returners in the National Football Conference but also emerged with the NFC's highest average-per-catch as a wide receiver (20.7 yards) after taking over for the injured Phillip Epps as the starting flanker in Game 13 ... Averaged 17.0 yards for every time he touched the football, including 35 receptions for 723 yards and 2 touchdowns, 33 punt returns for 316 yards, a 9.6 average good for fifth place in the NFC, and 559 yards in 28 kickoff returns, a 20.0 average which ranked ninth in the NFC ... Punctuated his punt return efforts with an 83-yard, scoring runback against the Detroit Lions at the Pontiac, MI, Silverdome before a national television audience Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27) which propelled the Packers to a last-minute, come-from-behind 44-40 victory ... It was the third TD of the afternoon for the multi-talented Chicago native, who earlier had collaborated with quarterback Randy Wright for a pair of TDs on 21 and 36-yard air strikes and the longest punt return of the year in the NFC ... Stanley closed out the afternoon with 124 yards in 4 catches to register the first 100-yard receiving day of his pro career ... Rolled up the astonishing total of 287 all-purpose yards in that performance, including 113 on two punt returns and 50 on three kickoff returns ... Had not played football in three years when Head Coach Forrest Gregg made him Green Bay's fourth round selection in the 1985 draft, a choice Gregg admitted had been a bit of a gamble ... Subsequently issued No. 87, formerly the property of Hall of Famer Willie Davis, to the newcomer—a numeral personally prized by the Packer coach because of the quality of Davis' career and his longtime friendship with the former defensive end great ... Following the '86 season, Gregg observed with a broad smile, "Walter has earned the right to wear number 87" ... Had the Packers' best punt and kickoff return averages as a rookie (12.7 yards and 14 PR and 23.8 yards for 9 KOR) ... Also saw limited action at wide receiver and had no receptions.

COLLEGE: Played two years of varsity football at the University of Colorado under Chuck Fairbanks and was redshirted one year before transferring to Mesa College (Grand Junction, CO), where he did not play football competitively ... Averaged 4.6 yards per rush and 25.8 yards per kickoff return as a freshman, returning both a punt and a kickoff for TDs in one game against the University of Oklahoma ... Led CU in kickoff returns as both a freshman and sophomore ... Originally utilized as a running back at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Given name Walter Stanley ... Nickname: "All-State" ... Single ... Was highly productive performer at Chicago South Shore High School, rushing for more than 1,600 yards as a senior while winning the Illinois state scoring title with 150 points ... Ken Stills - 29

SAFETY • WISCONSIN • 3RD YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 186 • BORN: 9/6/63 • (ACQ: D-8, '85)

PRO: Labeled "a heat-seeking missile" by Head Coach Forrest Gregg, impressed with Stills' intensity and aggressiveness, he was a major catalyst in the defense's mid-season turnaround in 1986 ... Inserted in the starting lineup at Cleveland Oct. 19, along with Timothy Harris and Tiger Greene, he keyed a bristling performance which limited the Browns to a mere 32 yards rushing as the Packers upset the AFC Central Division leaders, 17-14 ... He went on to become a hustling, hard-hitting leader of the defense, vocally as well as by example ... Defensive Coordinator Dick Modzelewski says of him: "I think Kenny Stills, with the way he played aggressively, picked up the whole defense. He set the whole thing in motion ... He had a great deal to do with the improvement in our defense ... He helped improve our play against the run and also against the passing game. He's very smart—he's like a director back there in the secondary, making sure everybody is where he is supposed to be... In addition, by the way he plays, he causes fumbles and he causes interceptions because he's in the ball game all of the time... He's what a defensive football player should be—a good, hardnosed, old-fashioned type football player"... The statistics document Modzelewski's appraisal... Stills finished second on the plateau as a whole in solo tackles with 63 despite not becoming a starter until the seventh game of the season... He also contributed 19 assists, forced one fumble and made one interception, a theft he returned 58 yards for a touchdown in the season finale against the eventual Super Bowl champion Giants... Had biggest statistical day of the season against Minnesota Vikings December 7, making 10 unassisted tackles... An eighth round draft choice in 1985, the former Wisconsin Badger saw his rookie season take a surprising twist... After making a strong bid for a berth on the final, 45-man roster, he was reluctantly released by the Packer coaching staff in the last cutdown for the regular season... Back home in Oceanside, CA, he was sent a hasty S.O.S. two months later when injury problems struck the Packer secondary five days before a Nov. 3 rematch with the Chicago Bears in Green Bay... Stills proceeded to make an impact, particularly upon Bear fullback Matt Suhey, felled by a lusty, 'delayed' hit which brought the yearling defender and the Packers a 15-yard assessment... A defensive standout, he finished the day with 5 unassisted tackles and one assist... It was his only start of the season, as it turned out but Stills went on to become a significant contributor on special teams the balance of the season, making 6 solo tackles and adding 2 assists.

COLLEGE: Given name Kenneth Lee Stills (a first round selection in '85 NFL draft) at Wisconsin... Made 5 interceptions and broke up 6 other passes as a senior... Played defensive back at El Camino, CA, Junior College before transferring to Wisconsin... Communications major.

PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth Lee Stills... Single... Became a popular member of the Packers' speakers' bureau during the off-season... Lists football, skiing and golf among interests and hobbies... Was both a wide receiver and defensive back at El Camino High School... Also participated in track and basketball... Hometown: Oceanside, CA.

John Swain - 25

CORNERBACK • MIAMI (FL.) • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 195 • BORN: 9/4/59 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

PRO: A former starting cornerback for the Minnesota Vikings and Pittsburgh Steelers, he joined the Packers as a free agent July 9, 1987... Had started last 10 games of 1986 season at left corner for Pittsburgh... Earlier had started 23 games for Vikings during four-year span with Minnesota, including 10 in 1984... Has 14 career receptions, including 12 with the Vikings and 6 in 1983 when he shared team honors while making seven starts at left corner... Waived by Vikings in final 1985 cutdown (September 2), he was signed by Miami as free agent September 5 and played in 6 games for Dolphins before being released.

October 19... Signed by Steelers three days later (October 22), he played in last 9 games, starting one, and registered 2 interceptions... Spent first five games of 1986 regular season on injured reserve with knee injury... Returned to play in sixth game and went on to start the last 10... Finished as eighth-ranking tackler on defensive unit with 40 solo stops and 11 assists... Also a strong special teams player, he was headhunter on Steelers' punt and kickoff units... His 2 interceptions in '85 came in the same game (vs. San Diego 12/8), marking the only time during that season a Steeler collected 2 intercepts in one game... Although primarily a left corner throughout his pro career, Swain started one game at free safety for the Vikings in 1984... Cracked Minnesota's starting lineup in fifth game of 1982 season and started remaining five contests... As a rookie in 1981, he received the call to start his first pro game when injuries depleted secondary... Possessor of impressive speed, he delivers punishing hits.

THE PLAYERS

COLLEGE: Voted team's defensive MVP as senior ... Earned four letters while starting three seasons at cornerback. Career statistics included 5 interceptions and 132 tackles ... Went out on track as senior and clocked 10.7 seconds for 100 meters ... Earned degree in sociology with a minor in drama.

PERSONAL: Given name John Wesley Swain ... Played safety and cornerback at Miami, FL, Carol City High ... Hometown: Miami.

Karl Swanke - 67

OFFENSIVE CENTER • BOSTON COLLEGE • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-6 • WT: 280 • BORN: 12/29/57 • (ACQ: D-6, '80)

PRO: One of the most versatile offensive linemen in Packer history, he completed the "cycle" in 1986 when he moved from tackle to center following injury to C Mark Cannon and started eight of the last 10 games of the season there ... Swanke, who was playing center for the first time since his junior year at Boston College in 1978, previously had played all four of the other positions in the offensive line—left and right guard and left and right tackle—since joining the Packers as a sixth round draft choice in 1980 ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, impressed with Swanke's versatility, says of Number 67's pinch-hitting role last season, "That was really a plus for us, because he can do more than that—he can play guard, he can play tackle, he can play center." He added, "I'm not too sure that center might not be his best position ... Based on what he did last year, I certainly think that he's valuable to us" ... The eight-year veteran since has been listed at center on the Packers' depth chart going into the 1987 season ... Swanke previously had been the starter at left offensive tackle since 1982, except for injury-enforced absences ... Sat out first six games of 1986 season while completing rehabilitation of left knee on which he had undergone a third surgery, a development which cut short his 1985 season ... Stretched the anterior cruciate in the knee for a second time in a game against Detroit Dec. 15, 1985, requiring an operation which involved taking up a tendon to support the stretched ligament ... Returned to active roster Oct. 11, 1986 and made first start at center a week later vs. Cleveland (Oct. 19), helping Packers upset Browns 17-14 to end season-opening, six-game losing streak ... Made three more starts before Cannon returned from I.R. for Nov. 16 game vs. Tampa Bay, then started last four games after Cannon re-injured knee vs. Bears Nov. 23 ... Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler, evaluating Swanke's assets, says, "Pass protection is Karl's strong suit ... Another thing about Karl that may not be readily apparent, because he is a somewhat laid-back individual, is that he has mental toughness—he's not afraid of anybody" ... The massive Connecticut native came into his own in 1984, when he graded out as the No. 1 pass protector in the Packers' offensive line, an achievement made the more impressive because Green Bay's line then boasted Pro Bowl center Larry McCarren ... Previously was a consistent, effective performer in 1983, when he started all 16 games ... Became starter in 1982 as a third year pro, opening at LT for 8 games in that strike-shortened season before suffering a knee injury early in Game Eight at Atlanta (Dec. 26) ... A surprisingly mobile performer for one of his imposing dimensions, the highly cerebral Boston College alumnus had been challenging for starting status in 1981 when he incurred his first knee injury in fourth game of the season—vs. Vikings at Milwaukee—and was lost for the year ... A tackle as a rookie, he was moved to guard in 1981 before returning to tackle in '82.

COLLEGE: Transferred from tackle to center as a junior, back to tackle as senior ... Physics major.

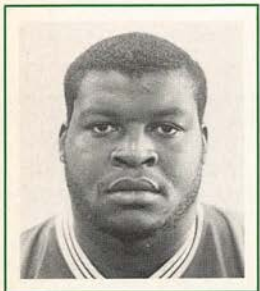

PERSONAL: Given name Karl Vance Swanke ... Nickname: "Karlitos" ... Married (Maggie) ... Teaches religious education at a Green Bay church (Annunciation) and also assists wife with her work at Green Bay's Family Violence Center ... bureau ... Hobbies: Golf ("any time, any weather") and puzzles ... Born in Elmhurst, IL, attended Newington, CT, High School ... Life-long Packer fan, he had wanted to be a Packer since he was five years old, when his paternal grandmother (Theo Swanke of Tigerton, WI), brought him to Green Bay to watch Packers practice ... His late father, Roy, played varsity football at Purdue ... Hometown: Newington, CT ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

Ben Thomas - 92

DEFENSIVE END • AUBURN • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 275 • BORN: 7/2/61 • (ACQ: W-N.E., '86)

PRO: Expected to be strong contender for employment at either end or tackle ... Became Packer via waivers Oct. 20, 1986 following release by Patriots ... Registered 6 tackles, including one quarterback sack, and 3 assists in reserve role ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg says of him, "We don't know yet where we'll play Ben—whether he'll be a 'nose' or whether he'll be an end—but we feel very fortunate that we were able to pick him up during the year last year, and he will compete for a job" ... Had been New England's third selection in the second round of the 1985 draft ... Played in 15 regular season games as a rookie, being credited with 3 tackles and 2 assists ... Later recorded a sack in Super Bowl XX vs. Bears ... Suffered a neck injury in '86 season opener against Colts, having started the game for injured Garin Veris ... Returned in Game 4 vs. Denver and posted one sack ... Also played in Games 5 and 6 ... Subsequently waived to make room for Kenneth Sims, returning from injured reserve.

COLLEGE: Set an Auburn record with 141 tackles in '84 ... Adult education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Benjamin Thomas, Jr. ... Married (Charlene) ... Favorite sports and hobbies: Horseback riding, basketball, hunting, fishing ... Attended Ashburn, GA, Turner County High School ... Hometown and residence: Ashburn, GA.

Keith Uecker - 70

OFFENSIVE GUARD • AUBURN • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 284 • BORN: 6/29/60 • (ACQ: W-Den., '84)

PRO: Back in good health after a season and a half on injured reserve, the imposing Floridian adds a major dimension to the competition in the offensive line ... Considering the team's premier offensive lineman before suffering a knee injury midway through the 1985 season, he spent the balance of that year on injured reserve, then underwent corrective knee and hamstring surgery in the off-season and remained on I.R. through the 1986 season ... Now fully recovered following extensive rehabilitation under the direction of Trainer Domenic Gentile, he is expected to be a strong contender for starting status in 1987 ...

Offensive Line Coach Jerry Wampfler says of him, "I personally would like to see what Keith Uecker can do when he's healthy. He's a tenacious guy and he's improved himself a lot. He has the mental toughness you like to see in an offensive lineman ... When he got hurt ... he was our best offensive lineman" ... The former Auburn athlete started the first seven games in '85 before undergoing surgery and giving way to then rookie Rich Moran ... Acquired on waivers from Denver Oct. 23, 1984, Uecker appeared in the last five games of the season, starting two, the latter at left guard in stepping in for Tim Huffman, who had been temporarily moved to tackle to replace the injured Karl Swanke ... A ninth round draft choice of the Broncos in 1982, Uecker started two games for Denver as a rookie and played in all 16 games in 1983, being frequently employed in short yardage and goal line situations ... Was handicapped by a foot injury in 1984 before being waived off injured reserve by Broncos with hope of reactivating him in their offensive line, a point at which he was claimed by the Packers.

I knew pass-blocking was the key to making it in the NFL and the time we spent here—we worked for 2½ hours every day and then watched video of the workouts in the classroom—that really helped me" ... Went on to start all 16 games ... Wampfler, pleased with Veingrad's progress, says of him, "Alan does a good job of pass protection. He has good feet that enable him to block the speed rushers. And he's worked hard at improving his run-blocking ... He's a hard-working guy—he studies the opponent hard—and he's intelligent ... I think he'll continue to improve" ... A 1985 graduate of East Texas State, he had tryouts with both Tampa Bay, with whom he signed right after the NFL draft, and the Houston Oilers in '85 before signing with the Packers as a free agent March 28, 1986.

COLLEGE: Two-time all-Lone Star Conference selection at East Texas State ... Lettered 4 years and team captain 1983 and '84 ... Named to Kodak All-America team as a senior ... Also selected on National Strength and Conditioning All-America ... Competed in track (discus) for 3 years ... Physical education and health major.

LINEBACKER • OKLAHOMA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 245 • BORN: 10/9/60 • (ACQ: FA, '87)

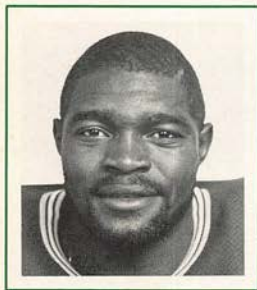

PRO: A former USFL starter for the New Jersey Generals, he joined Packers as a free agent Aug. 13, 1986 ... Suffered a shoulder separation in his very first scrimmage appearance and was sidelined until late season ... Active for last 3 games, making 2 tackles and contributing one assist ... Also made impact on special teams, collecting 5 solo tackles and 2 assists ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg, who liked what he saw of the former Oklahoma athlete in 1986, says of him, "We think Mike's going to compete for a job" ... Weddington, at 6-4 and 245 is blessed with the size and structure Gregg prizes in linebackers ... Played for the Packers' current linebacker coach, Dale Lindsey, for three years (1983-84-85) while both were with the Generals in the USFL.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Oklahoma ... Played tight end as a freshman in 1979, converted as a sophomore to defensive end and started there for the balance of his college career.

TIGHT END • AUBURN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 243 • BORN: 8/2/61 • (ACQ: FA, '84)

PRO: A consistent, dependable performer, he ranks among finest blocking tight ends in professional football ... Head Coach Forrest Gregg is comfortable with the Packers' TE situation because he has No. 86 available to him in addition to Dan Ross and Mark Lewis ... "Ed West is just a very, very steady football player—a good football player," he says of the square-cut Auburn graduate. "He's an excellent football player ... he's done everything we've asked of him" ... Started first four games in '86 before giving way to Dan Ross and played in all 16 ... Later started the rematches with the Bears (Nov. 23) and Lions (Nov. 27) when

Ross was sidelined by illness ... Scored Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon in that Bear contest at Chicago, by way of a 46-yard pass from quarterback Randy Wright, which gave the Packers a temporary

David Woodley - 19

QUARTERBACK • LSU • 7TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 210 • BORN: 10/25/58 • (ACQ: T-Pitts, '87)

PRO: David Woodley, the youngest starting quarterback in Super Bowl history when he led the Miami Dolphins into SB XVII in 1982 at the age of 24, was acquired from the Pittsburgh Steelers in a conditional, draft choice trade June 30, 1987 ... Had been out of football in 1986 after deciding to retire ... Earlier had been obtained by Steelers from Miami February 22, 1984 in a trade for a third round draft choice ... Earned starting role in 1984, his first year with Steelers, after engineering two come-from-behind victories in pre-season ... Threw for more than 200 yards in four of seven starts ... Completed 20 of 30 passes for 244 yards and two scores in game three vs. Los Angeles Rams (9/16) during that stretch ... Later rolled up season-high 252 yards passing (19 of 30) in a Monday night win over Cincinnati (10/1) ... Was knocked out of Miami game (10/7) with first quarter concussion in first appearance against his former team ... Sat out next game with concussion, returning to start at Indianapolis (10/21), but was forced out of that game with a badly bruised leg ... Did not play for remainder of season ... Started six games in 1985, his second year with Steelers, after Mark Malone went down with an injury ... Completed season with 54.7 rating, lowest of his six-year career, largely due to 14 interceptions compared to six touchdowns ... Five of his interceptions were returned for opponent touchdowns ... Was 3-0 as a starter before missing Washington game with stomach virus, going 1-2 in final three starts ... Best game of season came in 54-44 loss at San Diego (12/8) when he had career-high 24 completions in 35 attempts for season high 287 yards and 3 TDs ... Started following week vs. Buffalo (12/15) but injured shoulder on first play after running 12 yards with fumbled snap ... Sat out final game with shoulder injury ... An eighth round draft choice of the Dolphins in 1980, he earned NFL all-rookie honors and was named team's MVP, becoming first Dolphin rookie since Bob Griese to win MVP award ... First pro start was vs. Buffalo (10/19/80) when he completed 11 of 17 passes in first of 11 rookie starts ... His outstanding rookie training camp earlier had prompted Miami to trade QB Guy Benjamin to New Orleans ... Established Miami club record for pass attempts (366) and completions (191), marks which since have fallen to Dan Marino, and added 272 yards rushing to rank second in that category among AFC quarterbacks ... Led Dolphins to Super Bowl in 1982, his third pro season ... Worked a 76-yard, pass-run touchdown with Jimmy Cefalo in the first period of that one to give Miami an early, 7-0 lead (Redskins subsequently prevailed, 27-17) ... Accounted for 680 yards (47 of 163) and seven touchdowns in playoff victories leading to Super Bowl ... Caught 15-yard TD pass from Tony Nathan vs. New York Jets (9/12) during '82 regular season ... Started first five games for Dolphins in 1983 before emergence of Marino as Miami's starting quarterback ... Has 36-20 career record as a starter, including 29-14 with Miami and 7-6 with Steelers.

THE PLAYERS

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman with 151 completions in 310 passing attempts for 2,084 yards, eight touchdowns, 15 interceptions ... Also gained 833 yards on 218 rushes (for 8 TDs) ... Keyed 34-10 win over Wake Forest in final college game at Tangerine Bowl ... Shared time with Steve Enslinger in two-quarterback system, a factor in low selection in draft ... Majored in computer science.

PERSONAL: Given name David Eugene Woodley ... Lives at Davie, FL in off-season, where he owns and operates a health club ... Native of Shreveport, LA, hometown of Terry Bradshaw, Joe Ferguson and new teammate Ezra Johnson ... Owns and raises thoroughbred horses ... Fifth of seven children, including four brothers.

THE PLAYERS

Randy Wright - 16

QUARTERBACK • WISCONSIN • 4TH YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 203 • BORN: 1/12/61 • (ACQ: D-6, '84)

PRO: Installed as the Packers' starting quarterback in 1986 following the release of veteran Lynn Dickey, the ex-Wisconsin standout rapidly matured into one of the most productive field generals in Green Bay's long history ... Subsequently voted Packers' most valuable offensive player by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media, he compiled the third highest single season totals in Packer annals for completions (263) and passing yards (3,247) ... Only Dickey, in Packer history, has completed more passes for more yards in a single season ... This performance prompted Head Coach Forrest Gregg to call the dedicated Texas native the Packers' most improved player of '86 following the season ... Gregg went on to observe, "The best way for me to describe the development of our offensive football team—and maybe the team itself—in relation to Randy Wright, is this: When we started the season, we had a lot of young football players starting for us. I think a lot of those people that were starting really questioned in their own mind, you know, 'Am I ready?' I think they also did not know what the abilities of Randy Wright were. What was he going to do and how was he going to come along? And I think our young players started to gain more experience, more confidence in themselves. At the same time, you could see that Randy Wright was gaining a great deal of confidence in his own ability. Plus that was spilling over to the other players. I think the other players were starting to see that, 'Hey, this guy is a good quarterback. He can win for us.' So I think that with the combination of those two things, that really did a lot to pull our whole team together" ... In the process of winning MVP honors on offense, Wright set two Packer records for most passes in a game (54) vs. San Francisco at Milwaukee October 26, eclipsing the 51 thrown by Dickey vs. Tampa Oct. 12, 1980, and most pass attempts in a season (492), surpassing Dickey's club mark of 484, set in 1983 ... In addition, Wright's 17 touchdown passes matched the fifth highest single season total in Packer history and his 30 completions vs. the 49ers also tied the second highest single game total in Green Bay's annals ... Those 30 completions resulted in the first 300-yard passing day (328) of Wright's three-year pro career ... Had his best percentage day of the season vs. Detroit Thanksgiving (Nov. 27) when he completed 18 of 26 passes for a glittering 69.2 percentage, 268 yards and 3 TDs ... Had one other 3-TD outing—vs. Tampa Bay at Milwaukee Nov. 16 ... George Sefcik, Wright's position coach, says of him, "I like Randy's mentality. I think he has a heck of a good head on his shoulders—he's a smart kid. And he's a workaholic when it comes to studying video of an opponent. He has a good arm and he knows the system—he understands it well. He's also developing as a leader. By the end of last season, he was somebody the others were looking to. He was getting after people, and that only comes after you have proved you can do the job ... He can only get better" ... A sixth round draft selection in 1984, Wright had made only two starts prior to 1986—the first against the Bears at Chicago Dec. 9, 1984 and the second against the Cardinals at St. Louis Sept. 29, 1985 ... Suffered knee injury in second quarter of the Bear contest and underwent surgery the following day ... Threw touchdown pass in his very first regular season appearance as a professional earlier that season (Sept. 9), a game in which he replaced Dickey when the latter was injured on the first offensive series ... Became first player Packers had drafted from University of Wisconsin in 20 years (since center Ken Bowman was made Green Bay's eighth round selection that year) when he was selected in sixth round.

COLLEGE: Led Badgers to 12 Big Ten offensive marks as a senior, also establishing seven conference individual passing records ... Finished career as seventh ranking passer in Big Ten history on yardage basis with 5,048 ... Earned MVP honors in Blue-Gray game following senior season ... Transferred to Wisconsin from Notre Dame ... Has degree in communications.

PERSONAL: Given name Randall Steven Wright ... Married (Kelli) ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Piano playing, golf, basketball, movies ... Honorable mention All-America prep star at St. Charles, IL, High School ... Also competed in basketball and track ... Born in Austin, TX, and lived there until age of 16 ... Residence: Green Bay, WI.

1987 PACKER DRAFT

THE DRAFTEES

The following players were selected by the Packers in the 1987 National Football League draft. The players appear in the order of their selection.

BRENT FULLWOOD

Ht: 5-11

Wt: 209

RB

Auburn

Born: October 10, 1963

D-1

A smooth and elusive runner with explosive power, he is another in a long line of great running backs at Auburn ... Quickly made school's fans forget about the celebrated Bo Jackson as he led Southeast Conference in rushing his senior year and was a unanimous All-America selection by AP, UPI, Kodak, Football Writers, Football News, Scripps Howard and Walter Camp ... Finished sixth in Heisman Trophy balloting ... Rushed for 2,789 yards during his college career, fourth highest total in Auburn's history, and his 7.15 average, set a school career record ... Finished fourth in the nation in rushing in 1986 with 1,391 yards on 167 carries (an 8.3 average), the second highest season rushing total in Auburn history — behind Bo Jackson's 1,786 in 1975 ... Rushed for over 100 yards seven times, tying a school record with five consecutive 100-yard games ... Had best day against Tennessee, amassing 207 yards in 18 carries.

Tom Braatz, the Packers' new executive vice president of football operations, says of Fullwood, "The best thing he does is keep the ball between the sidelines. When he runs with the football, he never does take it out of bounds. He's the kind of guy who has gravel in his gut and is just a tough, hard-nosed football player" ... Willie Peete, the Packers' offensive backfield coach, observed, "The most impressive thing I saw in Brent was that when he made contact with a tackler, he always made extra yardage, regardless of where he was met by the tackler. Also, he explodes into the tackler right before impact" ... Draft expert Joel Buchsbaum describes Fullwood as "more dangerous with a football than Gerald Ford with a 2-iron ... When he's right he is the type of back who can carry an offense."

HIGH SCHOOL: Rushed for 4,580 yards, scored 47 touchdowns and 322 points at St. Cloud (FL) High School ... Returned 10 kickoffs as a senior—all for touchdowns—and three of five punt returns for scores ... Set a national record with three kickoff returns for touchdowns in one game ... Consensus prep All-American.

PERSONAL: Married high school sweetheart, the former Lanett Davis ... Most admired athlete is Tony Dorsett of the Cowboys ... Honored with "Brent Fullwood Day" in native St. Cloud May 4 after being drafted number one by the Packers.

THE DRAFTEES

JOHNNY HOLLAND • 22 • LB • Texas A&M
Ht.: 6-2 • Wt.: 221 • Born: March 11, 1965 • D-2

Regarded as one of the premier linebackers in the nation in 1986, he is described by Packer linebacker coach Dale Lindsey as "a playmaker who makes tackles from sideline to sideline" ... A gifted athlete, he entered Texas A. & M. as a quarterback, moved to free safety and finally settled won at inside linebacker his sophomore year ... Lindsey, impressed with Holland's athletic skills, says of him, "Johnny has great body control, excellent quickness and he is a really good play maker ... And he gives us a lot of opportunities — he gives us a chance to have an inside linebacker and look at him as an outside linebacker. We know he can play inside ... If he can play both, we have really helped ourselves as far as versatility is concerned" ... Blessed with excellent speed, having been timed at 4.6 in the '40,' he has been one of the most productive defensive players in the college ranks, leading A. & M. in tackles the last two years. R. C. Slocum, the Aggies' defensive coordinator says, "If you're talking about one of the best linebackers in the game, you have to put Johnny in there" ... Nicknamed "Mr. Anywhere" because of his ability to be where the ball is ... Named to the Football News first team All-America in 1985, he was involved in 147 tackles (79 solos), including four quarterback sacks and seven tackles for 26 yards in losses ... Had 20 tackles in a 16-7 win over Southern Mississippi ... Selected to play in the Hula and Senior Bowls ... Consensus All-American as a junior, when he led the team with 150 tackles despite missing one game ... Earlier led Aggie defenders in tackles as a sophomore with 155, including 21 in one game against Houston.

HIGH SCHOOL: Chosen All-District in both football and basketball at Hempstead, TX., High School.

PERSONAL: Business management major.

DAVE CROSTON • 23 • OT • Iowa
Ht.: 6-5 • Wt.: 280 • Born: November 10, 1963 • D-3A

Considered one of the best offensive linemen in the nation and the top left offensive tackle in the college ranks ... Possesses all the tools scouts look for in a premier lineman ... Has great size, excellent strength, impressive quickness and fine intelligence ... Had been a starter for the Hawkeyes for the last three years ... Jerry Wampler, the Packers' offensive line coach, says of Croston, "We're hoping this might be the block that fills in the offensive line puzzle and makes us a complete offensive line ... Obviously, his strength is that he can play the left tackle spot in a left-handed stance. He has pass protection with a good passing team at Iowa. He has played left tackle, been a starter there and done a good job against some tough pass rushers. So pass protection is his strength ... We feel we have the start of something good with our pass protection and he should fit in well there" ... Considered a fine basketball prospect coming out of the prep ranks but chose his first love, football, when he arrived on Iowa campus ... Croston worked under All-American John Alt, a 1984 first round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs, his first two years with the Hawkeyes and credits Alt with his development at left tackle. "John helped me make significant gains in every aspect of my game," Dave says, adding, "He helped me set up a great weight training program ... Strongest offensive player on the Iowa team, he is able to bench press over 500 pounds ... An avid weight lifter, he was chosen to the All-American Strength Team the last two years ... Came to the Hawkeyes as a 240-pounder but has added 40 pounds of muscle to his frame ... Hayden Fry, Iowa's head coach, says of him, "Dave Croston ... may be the best pass blocker we've had at Iowa since I've been here" ... Was a finalist for the 1986 Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior lineman ... First team All-Big Ten Conference and Academic All-Big Ten selection ... Received a 95 percent blocking grade by the Hawkeyes' coaches, highest among the linemen ... Took out three defenders on tailback Rick Bayless' 87-yard touchdown run against Northern Illinois ... Also season-long starter at LT as a junior ... Began sophomore season in 1984 as the starter there but a knee injury kept him out much of the season ... Redshirted in 1982 ... His younger brother, Jeff, was his understudy in 1986.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played offensive tackle in football and power forward in basketball at Sioux City, (IA.) East High School ... First team all-state selection twice.

PERSONAL: Pre-business major.

SCOTT STEPHEN • 22 • LB • Arizona State
Ht.: 6-2 • Wt.: 232 • Born: June 18, 1964 • D-3B

Described by Packer linebacker coach Dale Lindsey as "a guy with 'impact potential,' on the order of Tim Harris. He's a good pass rusher and very physical, and he will run you down from behind. He's the kind of guy you can't leave unblocked because of his quickness" ... Cat-quick defender who improved greatly as a senior, he helped solidify a Sun Devil defense which was one of the best in the nation the past two years ... Hard-working, versatile athlete and team leader ... Arizona State Coach John Cooper says of him,

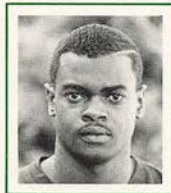

"Scott was a major force for us and picked up the slack created by the absence of David Fulcher (Bengals), Greg Battle and John Knight" ... An excellent pass defender, he added 10 pounds of muscle to his frame prior to his senior season to improve himself against the run ... All-Pac 10 Conference selection and also earned various All-America honors ... Bothered early in '86 season with shoulder problems, he started 10 of 11 games, finishing fourth on the team with 73 tackles, including 47 solos and 6 sacks ... Also had 2 interceptions ... Recorded 11 tackles in a 22-15 win over Michigan in the Rose Bowl ... Was chosen to play in the Japan and Senior Bowls ... Led Sun Devils in sacks as both a sophomore and junior, registering 9 each season ... Closed out junior year with 95 tackles overall, including 16 against both Michigan and Washington State ... Collected 88 tackles as a sophomore, including a season high 17 against California.

HIGH SCHOOL: Graduate of Manual Arts (Los Angeles) High, earning all-central, all-city and All-America honors while he served as team captain as senior ... Caught 54 passes as a receiver on offense and made 67 tackles as a linebacker on defense that '82 season.

PERSONAL: Economics major.

FRANKIE NEAL • 21 • WR • Fort Hays State
Ht.: 6-1 • Wt.: 202 • Born: October 1, 1965 • D-3C

A big-play, deep threat receiver who was a key figure in the Florida offensive attack before transferring to Fort Hays State, where he became a perfect compliment to All-NAIA receiver Eric Busenbark ... Averaged over 20 yards per catch each of his last three years in college, including 24.4 in 1985 ... Described by Packer Coach Forrest Gregg as "a big, strong wide receiver who has the ability to break tackles when he gets the ball in his hands" ... Possesses deceptive speed and is able to elude defenders easily in the open field ... Has improved his speed every year, having been recently timed at 4.53 seconds in the '40' ... Served as third receiver behind Ricky Nattiel and Ray McDonald his junior year at Florida ... Caught 40 passes for 1,846 yards (a 21.2 average) and led the team in scoring with 54 points on 9 touchdowns as a senior at Fort Hays ... Has a season long 83-yard touchdown against Missouri Western ... Averaged 90.7 yards in all-purpose running per game ... Caught only 13 passes as a sophomore at Florida but five of them went for touchdowns.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-state receiver at Okeechobee, FL., High ... Caught 72 passes for 1,635 yards (22.7 average) and 16 touchdowns in his last two years ... Caught TDs of 97, 89 and 50 yards in final game his senior year.

LORENZO FREEMAN • 22 • DT • Pittsburgh
 Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 270 • Born: May 23, 1964 • D-4

Dick Modzelewski, the Packers' defensive coordinator, says of Freeman, "The thing that has impressed me the most about Lorenzo ... is that the guy never stops. He is very enthusiastic ... He's got a lot to learn but I think he is going to be a good defensive tackle ... The thing I like about Lorenzo is that he has explosion off the line of scrimmage ... As big as he is, he gets right down low and into people. I have never seen anybody move him out" ... Was a reserve for Walter Johnson and Bob Buczkowski, a first round draft choice of the Los Angeles Raiders, as a junior ... Bothered by injuries in '84 but played in six games and made 14 tackles ... Played as a backup on the special teams in '83 and was backup to another first round draft choice, Bill Maas of the Kansas City Chiefs ... Pitt Coach Carl Angelo says of him, "Lorenzo has tremendous size and can dominate his opponent."

HIGH SCHOOL: Was a two-year letterman at Woodrow Wilson High (East Camden, N.J.) ... Was All-Conference, All-South Jersey and his school's outstanding lineman.

PERSONAL: Given name is Lorenzo Z. Freeman ... Son of Leslie and Floretta Freeman ... Has three brothers and three sisters.

WILLIE MARSHALL • 22 • WR • Temple
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 190 • Born: May 23, 1964 • D-6

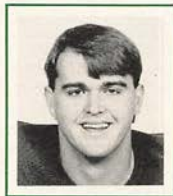

Big play receiver known for his clutch catches ... Averaged 20.5 yards per catch for four varsity seasons at Temple and finished his career as owner of the school's records for career receiving yardage (2,272) and 100-yard receiving games, six ... Also ranked third lifetime in receptions (111) ... Tom Coughlin, Packer receivers coach, describes Marshall as "an outstanding athlete ... Willie was a 6-7½ high jumper in high school and had a Division I basketball offer from Rutgers. He's a smooth athlete, sometimes to the point of not looking as fast as he really is" ... Led Temple in receptions as a senior with 30 for 514 yards (17.1 average) ... They included a career high 9 catches for 134 yards against Boston College ... As a junior in 1985, he broke the school record for receiving yardage in a game, previously held by Gerald Lucear, gaining 183 yards on seven catches vs. Pittsburgh.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-county, all-South Jersey and all-state receiver at North Burlington (Brown Mills, N.J. High, where his team captured the Freedom Division and South Jersey Group II titles ... Also lettered in basketball and track.

TONY LEIKER • 22 • DT • Stanford
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 258 • Born: September 26, 1964 • D-7A

"The best thing about Tony is his motor," says Packer defensive coordinator Dick Modzelewski. "He never stops and never quits ... And he has good hand-eye coordination on the pass rush. He's also the kind of guy who's going to stay on his own after practice and work out and watch film ... Tony needs more work on his upper body strength, but he set a record at Stanford for squats with 630 pounds" ... Primarily a pass rusher, Leiker will be employed at defensive end in both the 3-4 and 4-3 ... Dick Mannini, Stanford's current defensive coordinator, says of Leiker, "His quickness, coupled with his strength, are his greatest assets. He'll fool you. He doesn't look big but he has a motor that won't shut off. He plays hard from snap to whistle. In one year, he mastered techniques that it takes others two and three years to get acquainted with" ... Transferred to Stanford from Coffeyville, KS, Community College, where he played defensive end and tackle ... First team PAC-10 All-Academic selection.

HIGH SCHOOL: An all-Mid East League selection for two years at Silver Lake, KS, High ... Also named all-state ... Helped lead his team to the state championship in his junior year ... Also played baseball and basketball and participated in track. In basketball, his team placed third in the state his junior year.

PERSONAL: Economics major ... Enjoys basketball and chess.

BILL SMITH • 21 • P • Stanford
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 222 • Born: June 9, 1965 • D-7B

The premier punter in the nation in 1986, according to almost every scouting service, he closed out his career with an impressive 44.4-yard average for 254 punts ... Ranks third on Southeastern Conference career charts and also holds the conference record for the longest punt, a 92-yarder vs. Southern Mississippi in 1984 ... Also set a game record with a 84.5-yard average vs. Southern Mississippi the same day ... Has impressive hang time on his punts and has been compared to the Dolphins' Reggie Roby ... Packer Coach

Forrest Gregg says of Smith: "He can really boom the ball — he can miss-hit 'em and still hang it for four seconds" ... Shows great versatility, being able to handle both the placekicking and punting duties ... Handled both chores as a freshman at Ole Miss before concentrating on punting ... Also handled the team's kickoff chores as both a junior and senior ... Has the ability to connect on field goals past the 50-yard range ... All-America selection and first team All-Southeastern Conference choice in 1986 for the second straight year ... Had 22 punts for over 50 yards, 12 for fair catches, 6 touchbacks and 14 downed inside the 20-yard line ... Punted 8 times for a 48.9-yard average against Arkansas ... Had a season high, 52.8-yard average on 4 punts in the Blue-Gray Classic ... Also chosen to play in the Senior Bowl ... Had 45.3 average as a junior in 1985, good enough to set a SEC mark for best punting average on over 75 punts ... Finished second in the nation as a sophomore in 1984 with a 47.7 average on 44 punts, losing the national title to Vanderbilt's Ricky Anderson on the last day of the season ... Twenty-three of those punts were over 50 yards ... Handled all kicking duties for his first five games as a freshman in 1983, hitting all 6 extra points he attempted and hitting on 61 of 13 field goal attempts in the process.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-conference and all-state at Little Rock, AR, Mills High ... Also made the Arkansas Gazette All-Super Team. Set school record with a 47-yard field goal (3 times) ... Also holds school mark in the discus (160 feet) and shot put (57 feet) ... Averaged 43 yards per punt ... Connected on 31 of extra points as a senior.

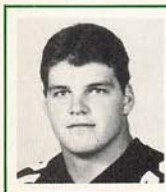

PERSONAL: Public administration major. Strongest punter in the nation with a 420-pound bench press.

JEFF DROST • 23 • DT • Iowa
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 286 • Born: January 27, 1964 • D-8

Packer Coach Forrest Gregg, impressed with the newcomer's first appearance on the Packer practice field in the May mini-camp, declared, "Jeff Drost is going to make whoever lines up in front of him work for a living. I can tell you that right now. He's just that type of individual" ... A punishing tackler who saw a banner senior season at Iowa in 1986 end as he suffered a knee injury that required surgery, he made a remarkable recovery, returning to the Hawkeyes in time to see bowl action ... Switched back to defensive tackle after playing nose guard during the '84 season ... A dominating lineman, he steels against the pass, with his forte deflecting passes at the line of scrimmage ... It prompted Iowa Coach Hayden Fry to say, "Jeff thinks he's a pass receiver. He's got great big hands and deflects quite a few balls" ... A team leader for the Hawkeyes, he spent countless hours in the film room studying his opponents ... Only two schools expressed interest in him out of high school (Iowa and Iowa State), largely due to his lack of prep football experience because his father was an Air Force recruiter and Jeff spent much of his childhood traveling from state to state ... Came to Iowa as a 220-pounder but reaped the benefits of the Hawkeyes' outstanding weight training program, adding over 65 pounds of muscle to his frame. "I never did any weightlifting until I got to Iowa," said Jeff. "But you have to make that adjustment quick. I had enough of people stepping all over me. I knew I had to do something about it" ... Earned his first starting job as a sophomore ... Bounced around the world during his early years as his father was re-assigned by the Air Force, with stops in England, West Germany, Texas, Minnesota and North Dakota before settling down at Iowa ... Finalist for the Lombardi Trophy as a senior ... Deflected pass and a 36-yard interception return in a 17-6 win over Wisconsin ... Played in the Japan Bowl ... First team All-Big Ten selection by AP and UPI as a junior in 1985 ... Leading tackler on the defensive line with 77, also pacing the team in tackles for losses with 15 for 65 yards and in quarterback sacks with 9 ... In 1984, as a sophomore, stepped in for an injured Hap Peterson at nose guard and started the last 8 games, leading the team in pass deflections with 8 ... Redshirted first year at Iowa (1982).

HIGH SCHOOL: All-state in football and all-Central Iowa Conference in football and wrestling ... Won conference wrestling and discus titles ... Holds school records with 18 pins and track mark in discus of 178 feet, 6 inches at Indianola (Waukee, Iowa) High ... Played in the Shrine Bowl game his senior year.

PERSONAL: Pre-business major.

GREGG HARRIS • 21 • G • Wake Forest
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 279 • Born: April 4, 1966 • D-9

Termed "a very, very good athlete" by Head Coach Forrest Gregg, who says, "Gregg Harris has good feet, good speed and quickness ... He also has the frame that you like for an offensive lineman — he has the ability to get bigger ... He has the athletic ability to make it and play in this league (but) he must get stronger" ... Jerry Wampfler, the Packers' offensive line coach, says of Harris: "He has as good breakdown on pass protection as anyone I worked out in the draft" ... A junior college transfer who entered Wake Forest weighing 310 pounds, he pared his weight down to 258 before building back up to his present 279 ... Worked his way into the Wake Forest lineup and came on strong in his senior year ... Late developing athlete who excelled for the Deacons in the second half of the '86 season ... Enrolled at Wake Forest in spring of 1985 after an all-conference season at Independence, KS, Junior College.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Norfolk Catholic High where he was an all-league selection in 1982.

PERSONAL: Majored in speech communications ... Would like to enter the communications field, preferably in television.

DON MAJKOWSKI • 23 • QB • Virginia
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 197 • Born: February 25, 1964 • D-10

Starting quarterback for the Cavaliers since midway through the 1984 season, he displayed a strong arm and good grasp of the offense in the Packers' May mini-camp ... George Sefcik, the Packers' quarterback coach, is impressed with Majkowski's overall athletic ability. "He runs well and has the ability to avoid the rush," Sefcik says. "He's a very good quarterback with good athletic ability" ... Ranks first on Virginia's all-time passing list (3,901 yards) and on the school's total offense list (4,632 yards) ... Ran Virginia's option attack extremely well ... Shared the quarterback position with Scott Secules in 1985, completing 104 of 199 passes (52.3 percent) for 1,375 yards and 7 touchdowns ... Also ran for 102 yards on 66 carries and one

PATRICK SCOTT • 22 • WR • Grambling
Ht.: 6-0 • Wt.: 182 • Born: September 13, 1964 • D-11

Talented athlete who returned to form last season after missing almost all of the 1985 season with injury problems ... A versatile performer who is highly effective as a pass receiver, running back and return specialist, he had a banner senior season in '86 as he led the team in receiving with 49 receptions for 766 yards (15.6 average) and 6 touchdowns ... Had a season high 10 receptions for 152 yards in a 30-3 win over Southern ... Carried the ball 28 times for 91 yards and added 61 yards on punt returns ... Starting wingback for Tigers' as a sophomore in 1984, then went down with an ankle injury in season opener as a junior ... Missed the rest of the year, receiving a medical redshirt ... Possesses great speed and uncanny elusiveness ... A threat to score from anywhere on the field ... Some believe that his ability to evade defenders made him one of the best receivers ever to suit up for the Tigers.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-Area and All-County running back at Ringgold, LA, High School.

PERSONAL: Criminal justice major ... Devout fan of Chicago Cubs relief pitching star Lee Smith, a fellow Ringgold resident who resides on the same street as the Scott family.

NORMAN JEFFERSON

Ht: 5-10 • Wt: 183 • 22 • DB • LSU
Born: August 7, 1964 • D-12

Impressed Head Coach Forrest Gregg and defensive backfield coach Dick Jauron in the Packers' mini-camp with both his athletic and learning skills. "We liked him in mini-camp — we like him well," said Gregg. "He showed some coverage ability and he has good intelligence. He also can catch the ball as a kick returner" ... Jauron, struck by Jefferson's quick grasp of the Packers' defensive format, declared, "Norman is very sharp. He picked up everything quickly. He is a bright young man" ... Had 5 interceptions at LSU as a sophomore in 1984, when he started every game and finished the season with 45 tackles ... Also returned 26 punts for 231 yards, including a 34-yarder in a 16-14 win over Alabama ... Was one of the nation's best return specialists as a freshman in '83, with 18 punt returns for 238 yards (a 13.2-yard average) and ran back nine kickoffs for 265 yards (a 29.4 average) ... Has run the 40-yard dash in 4.65 seconds ... Final selection (335th) in 1987 NFL Draft.

HIGH SCHOOL: Won first team all-state honors in football at John Ehret High and was named the state Quad-A Defensive Player of the Year in 1982.

PERSONAL: Enjoys basketball, track, baseball and table tennis ... Has five brothers and sisters.

JUST FOR THE RECORD

The Green Bay Packers, founded as a town team in 1919, launch the 1987 season with a .581 overall winning percentage after playing 1,142 games. The Chicago Bears and St. Louis Cardinals are the only other teams in professional football to have played more than 1,000 games.

In 68 seasons, the Packers have won 640 games, lost 456 and tied 46. The 1,142-game total includes 859 league, playoff and Super Bowl games and 283 pre-season, mid-season and post-season non-league games.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Sept. 22 Packers carry 12-10 lead over Super Bowl champion Chicago into fourth quarter with aid of a four-field goal performance by Al Del Greco before bowing (25-12) as Bears nose ahead via 52-yard Kevin Butler field goal and an "in-the-grasp" end zone sack of quarterback Randy Wright, then follow with 42-yard scoring pass. Del Greco's 4 FGs tie club record.
- Oct. 19 Rebounding from 14-3 halftime deficit, Packers forge two third quarter touchdowns to overcome Browns at Cleveland, 17-14, and score first victory of season. Rookie Kenneth Davis and veteran Gerry Ellis, inserted in offensive backfield at start of third quarter, lead second half charge, Davis rushing for 65 yards in 10 carries and Ellis snaring 4 passes for 65 yards and scoring Green Bay's first TD on a 2-yard run. Quarterback Randy Wright provides the other on a 47-yard collaboration with flanker Phillip Epps. Revamped defense, with rookie Tim Harris starting at outside linebacker and Ken Stills and Tiger Greene at safety, holds Browns to 265 net yards, including just 32 rushing. Harris, making a spectacular debut, amasses 10 unassisted tackles, including a sack of Browns quarterback Bernie Kosar, adds 2 assists and also recovers a fumble which sets up a 24-yard Al Del Greco field goal that ultimately proves to be the winning margin.
- Oct. 26 Packers roll up season high 464 yards total offense while holding 49ers to only 222 but are victimized by pair of San Francisco runbacks of interceptions for touchdowns and fall, 31-17. Randy Wright throws for 328 yards in losing cause, setting team single game record for passes attempted in process with 54. James Lofton catches 500th pass, becoming 15th player in pro football history to catch as many as 500 passes in a career.
- Nov. 9 After leading Washington 7-6 at intermission on 3-yard scoring pass from Randy Wright to Phillip Epps, Packers go scoreless in second half after Wright suffers second quarter concussion and bow to Redskins, 16-7. Kenneth Davis rushes for 93 yards in 16 carries, a Packer season best.
- Nov. 16 Packers charge to 21-0 halftime lead against Tampa Bay at Milwaukee, and cruise to 31-7 victory. Randy Wright passes for 238 yards and 3 touchdowns, among them 53 and 5-yard scoring strikes to Phillip Epps.
- Nov. 23 Randy Wright's 46-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ed West gives Packers 12-0 advantage on Bears in rematch at Chicago's Soldier Field midway through fourth quarter but Gary Ellerson's first down fumble at Green Bay 35 with 6 minutes left enables Bears to pull out 13-12 victory on 32-yard Kevin Butler field goal with 2:23 to play.
- Nov. 27 Packers forge dramatic, 44-40 victory over Lions on national television at Pontiac, Mi., Silverdome Thanksgiving Day by way of Walter Stanley's electrifying 83-yard scoring punt return with only 41 seconds remaining in game. Lead changes hands three times during free-scoring, see-saw contest. Stanley closes out afternoon with impressive total of 287 all-purpose yards, including 124 via four pass receptions, 113 on two punt returns and 50 on three kickoff returns, his four catches including 21 and 36-yard TD receptions. Randy Wright completes 18 of 26 passes for 286 yards and 3 TDs overall.

PACKERS STILL SHARE 'MONDAY NIGHT' POINT MARK

The Packers continue to hold a share—the winning share—of the highest scoring game in the history of "Monday Night Football." On October 17, 1983, they titillated a Lambeau Field house of 52,555 fans by shading the Washington Redskins in a spectacular struggle, 48-47.

The Packers eventually prevailed over the then defending Super Bowl champions by way of a Jan Stenerud field goal in a scoring orgy which produced 11 touchdowns, 11 conversions and 5 other field goals. Stenerud's 20-yard success with only 54 seconds remaining decided the issue. The Redskins' Mark Moseley added a final, dramatic touch by missing a 39-yard field goal attempt on the game's last play.

The 95-point aggregate surpassed the previous "Monday Night Football" record for total points by 11. The latter had been established Dec. 20, 1982, when the San Diego Chargers outscored the Cincinnati Bengals, 50-34.

The contest also was the highest scoring game in which the Packers ever have been involved. The 95 points exceeded by eight the previous high of 87, set when Green Bay lost to the Lions at Detroit in 1951, 52-35.

The Packer record on "Monday Night Football:"

- 1970 — Packers 22, Chargers 20 (at San Diego, Oct. 12)
- 1970 — Colts 13, Packers 10 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 9)
- 1971 — Packers 14, Lions 14 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 1)
- 1971 — Falcons 28, Packers 21 (at Atlanta, Nov. 22)
- 1972 — Packers 24, Lions 23 (at Detroit, Oct. 16)
- 1973 — Packers 23, Jets 7 (at Milwaukee, Sept. 17)
- 1973 — Forty Niners 20, Packers 6 (at San Francisco, Nov. 26)
- 1974 — Bears 10, Packers 9 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
- 1975 — Broncos 23, Packers 13 (at Denver, Sept. 29)
- 1977 — Redskins 10, Packers 9 (at Washington, Nov. 21)
- 1979 — Packers 27, Patriots 14 (at Green Bay, Oct. 1)
- 1982 — Packers 27, New York Giants 19 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 20)
- 1983 — Giants 27, Packers 3 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 26)
- 1983 — Packers 48, Redskins 47 (at Green Bay, Oct. 17)
- 1983 — Packers 12, Buccaneers 9 (OT) (at Tampa Bay, Dec. 12)
- 1984 — Broncos 17, Packers 14 (at Denver, Oct. 15)
- 1985 — Bears 23, Packers 7 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
- 1986 — Bears 25, Packers 12 (Sept. 22)

Packers won 7, lost 10, tied 1.

PACKER SUPER BOWL STORY

Super Bowl I

January 15, 1967

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

Paid Attendance: 61,946

Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 40-yard return of an interception to the Chief's 5-yard line with the Packers leading by only 14-10. The pass, authored by the Chiefs' Len Dawson, had been intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers, first offensive series) after having caught only three passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores counting one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a one-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter; the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McCClinton.

Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and 2 touchdowns and was chosen the game's most valuable player. His scoring strikes came on a 37-yard collaboration with McGee in the first quarter and a 13-yard pitch to the aging end in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

Super Bowl II

January 14, 1968

Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida

Paid Attendance: 75,564

Green Bay 33, Oakland 14

Having acquired a third consecutive NFL championship just two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning the Super Bowl title for the second straight year. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packer attack that was in control all the way after building up a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley highlighted the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard interception return of a Daryle Lamonica pass.

After leading by only 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers padded their margin to 16-7 at halftime by way of three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

PACKER NFC PLAYOFF HISTORY

GAME BY GAME

1936 — GREEN BAY 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6, (Polo Grounds, New York) — Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played in the Polo Grounds because the Redskins' franchise was being shifted to Washington, D.C., by George Marshall. A turnout of 29,545 saw Don Hutson take a 45-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers were never headed.

1938 — NEW YORK 23, GREEN BAY 17, (Polo Grounds, New York) — The Packers overcame an early 9-0 New York lead, spawned by two blocked punts, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. The Packers began to close in early in the second period, Arnie Herber capitalizing on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 50-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants margin to 9-7.

The Giants shortly converted a mid-field fumble by Packer fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead before Green Bay again trimmed the deficit to two points before the half was over; Clarke Hinkle crashing over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker. The Packers then forged in front in opening minutes of the second half for the first and only time in the game; an Engebretsen field goal presenting them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 35-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A crowd of 48,120, a play off record, sat in on proceedings.

1939 — GREEN BAY 27, NEW YORK 0, (State Fair Park, Milwaukee) — The Packers made playoff history by scoring first shutout ever registered in NFL championship game. Despite bitter 35 m.p.h. wind, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in leading Green Bay to its fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gartenbein, and pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen and a long TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski.

1944 — GREEN BAY 14, NEW YORK 7, (Polo Grounds, New York) — With peerless pass catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy for the Giant defense, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged the offensive hero of Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, one on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a 26-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the third. Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the final period. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, had a brilliant day, setting a playoff record with three interceptions and claiming ground gaining honors with 74 yards in 13 carries. Attendance: 46,016.

1960 — PHILADELPHIA 17, GREEN BAY 13 (Franklin Field) — Packers erected a 6-0 lead in the second period and were out in front by 13-10 in fourth quarter before yielding to late surge by Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay moved ahead in first quarter on a 20-yard Paul Hornung field goal. Hornung added 23-yard FG in second quarter but Eagles tied it 6-6 on a 35-yard scoring pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and edged ahead via Bobby Walston's first conversion. Walston followed with a 15-yard FG for a 10-6 halftime lead.

The Packers stopped Philadelphia at their own four late in the third period, then recaptured lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. A 58-yard kickoff return by Dean, however, ignited Eagles and victory eluded Packers, making their first title game appearance in 16 years. Attendance: 67,325.

1961 — GREEN BAY 37, NEW YORK 0, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, scored a record tying 19 points to key Packer decimation of Giants in first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A record Packer home crowd of 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team of 1961, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, was proving a devastating complement to the attack, intercepting four Giant passes and recovering one fumble.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and defensive back Hank Gremminger, set up touchdowns No. 2 and 3 while the fumble recovery by Forrest Gregg led to Hornung's second field goal and a Jess Whittenton interception to Hornung's final FG.

1962 — GREEN BAY 16, NEW YORK 7, (Yankee Stadium, New York) — Out front all the way in a raw, cyclonic setting, Packers weather siege by vengeful Giants in primitive, hand-to-hand struggle.

PACKER NFC PLAYOFF HISTORY

Ray Nitschke proves principal frustration to New Yorkers, seeking redemption for shutout humiliation in '61 title game. His deflection triggers interception to blunt early Giant drive to Green Bay 10. On way to being named game's most valuable player, he also registers two interceptions, one of which led to the Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The other set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided eventual margin.

Giants' only TD comes on block of Max McGee punt in Green Bay end zone midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor sets playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 — GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Field softened by four-inch snow made Packer backs only run harder as Lambeau Field crowd of 50,777 celebrated third championship in five years. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung amassed 201 yards rushing in rally that overcame Browns' early 9-7 lead.

Packers charged to 7-0 first quarter advantage on 47-yard Bart Starr pass to Carroll Dale and Don Chandler's conversion, but Cleveland moved in front on a 17-yard TD strike from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and 24-yard Lou Groza field goal.

Green Bay rebounded, however, with 15 and 23 yard FGs by Chandler, the latter following a Willie Wood interception, to claim 13-7 lead subsequently trimmed to a single point by a second Groza FG shortly before the intermission.

Starr settled the issue in third quarter, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play scoring drive climaxed by Hornung's 13-yard sweep of Browns' right perimeter.

1966 — GREEN BAY 34, DALLAS 27, (Cotton Bowl, Dallas) — Bart Starr has one of his finest hours, passing for four touchdowns as Packers win second straight title and fourth in six years. Tom Brown thwarts last-minute Cowboy bid, and the majority of 74,152 Cotton Bowl fans, with end zone interception of Don Meredith's fourth down pass from Green Bay 2.

Packers mounted quick 14-0 lead on a 17-yard Starr pass to Elijah Pitts and 18-yard scoring run with a fumble recovery by rookie Jim Grabowski, but led only 21-17 at halftime following explosive Cowboy comeback. After a 32-yard Villanueva field goal had cut Packer lead to a tenuous 21-20, Starr hit Dowler and McGee with 16-yard scoring passes to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

1967 — GREEN BAY 21, DALLAS 17, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — With thermometer shuddering at 16 below zero and 50,861 in stands, Bart Starr scores winning touchdown from one-yard-line with 13 seconds remaining, sealing record third straight championship for Packers and their fifth in seven years.

Starr's touchdown, on third down with no timeouts remaining, climaxed a 68-yard drive in 12 plays.

As was case in 1966, Packers grabbed early 14-0 advantage. But this time Cowboys came from behind to take the lead, forcing story book finish by Green Bay to win contest later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

Starr's touchdown passes of 8 and 46 yards to Boyd Dowler built the first quarter bulge, trimmed in second quarter by George Andrie's 7-yard scoring return of a Starr fumble and 21-yard Danny Villanueva field goal. Dan Reeves' 50-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in the fourth quarter triggered the dramatic denouement.

1983 SUPER BOWL TOURNAMENT

1983—GREEN BAY 41, ST. LOUIS 16 (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Making their first post-season appearance in Lambeau Field since celebrated "Ice Bowl" game of 1967 against Dallas, Packers halt Cardinal drive at one-yard-line in first quarter then proceed to forge an all-time club scoring record in their opening Super Bowl Tournament contest following 1982 season.

Out front 21-3 at halftime, they pad lead to 41-9 in fourth quarter before permitting Cards a consolation touchdown. Quarterback Lynn Dickey ties Packer playoff record before 54,282 fans by passing for 4 touchdowns (17 of 23 for 260 yards and 0 interceptions overall) and flanker John Jefferson sets club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards on 6 catches, including a 60-yard TD reception, another Packer playoff record. Placekicker Jan Stenerud also establishes a club playoff mark with a 46-yard field goal.

1983—DALLAS 37, GREEN BAY 26 (Texas Stadium, Irving, TX) — Packers amass 466 yards, a team playoff record, but are unable to overcome slow start, which finds them trailing 20-7 at halftime. They roll up 363 yards and out-score Cowboys 19-17 in second half, pulling within four points (30-26) on a 23-yard scoring runback of an interception by Mark Lee in fourth quarter, but Cowboys retaliate with 74-yard scoring drive to end Green Bay hopes with 63,972 fans looking on.

Quarterback Lynn Dickey throws for 332 yards (19-for-36) and all-time Packer playoff record in losing cause, split end James Lofton emerging with 109 yards on 5 receptions. Lofton also spices Packers' second half comeback with 71-yard reverse for a TD, tying all-time NFL playoff record for a run from scrimmage.

The Lambeau Field Story

Green Bay's Lambeau Field, home of the Packers, was erected in 1957 with a capacity of 32,150. Five subsequent additions have been made to the facility in the 30-year interim, increasing the current capacity to 57,091. The most recent expansion, in 1985, involved the construction of 72 private boxes, 44 of them from goal line to goal line on the east side and 28 on the west side, extending from either end of the press box to the goal line.

The cost of the original project, when the stadium was constructed in 1957, was $960,000. It was shared equally by the Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the City of Green Bay. Financed by means of a bond issue, it received voter approval in a referendum conducted April 3, 1956. All subsequent additions have been underwritten by the Packer Corporation. They previously increased stadium capacity to 38,669 in 1961, 42,327 in 1963, 50,861 in 1965 and to 56,155 in 1970.

The stadium was dedicated as City Stadium on September 29, 1957. It later was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965, following the death of the late E. L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first coach of the Packers.

Lambeau Field now is wholly owned by the City of Green Bay, retirement of the original $960,000 indebtedness having been celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1963 — E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, Founder, player, coach, vice-president (1919-49). Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '27, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only five coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL, (others are George Halas, Paul Brown, Don Shula and Tom Landry). Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-'51) and Washington Redskins (1952-'53).

1963 — Johnny (Blood) McNally, HB (1928-'36). Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Steelers. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Still ranks 15th in Packer lifetime scoring, four decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 224 points. Collegiate star at St. Thomas.

1963 — Don Hutson, E (1935-'45). Highest scoring receiver in pro football history with 99 touchdowns, all-time NFL record. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving 8 years and in scoring 5 seasons, both also lifetime marks. Caught passes in 95 consecutive games, one of the longest streaks in pro football history. Led NFL in receiving yards in 7 seasons an all-time record. Also holds league record for most points scored in one quarter (29).

1963 — Robert (Cal) Hubbard, T-E (1929-'35). Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6 ft. 3 inch, 265 pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an all-pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Played college football at Centenary, Geneva.

1964 — Clarke Hinkle, FB (1932-'41). A four-time all-pro selection (1936, '37, '38, '41) ... One of the most versatile players in NFL annals, he was tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Fourth-ranking rusher in Packer history with 3,860 yards in 1,171 carries. Played college football at Bucknell.

1964 — Mike Michalske, G (1929-'37). Also played for New York Yankees (1927-'28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time all-pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1966 — Arnie Herber, HB (1930-'41). Also played for New York Giants (1944-'45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three National Football League passing titles and was all-pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Shares fourth place in lifetime passing efficiency in Packer annals with 50.06 percentage for 9 seasons and ranks fifth in career touchdown passes with 51. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis (Denver, Colo.).

1971 — Vince Lombardi, Coach and General Manager (1959-'67). Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-'58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-'62 and 1965-'66-'67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games under his leadership and overall, compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage. Lombardi, a guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

1974 — Tony Canadeo, HB (1941-'44, 1946-'52). Became only the third 1,000 yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1952. Still ranks as No. 3 ground gainer in Packer annals with 4,197 yards in 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired nickname of "Grey Ghost."

1976 — Jim Taylor, FB (1958-'66). Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). One of three running backs in pro football history to rush for 1,000 yards in five consecutive seasons (1960-'64). Also ninth ranking career rusher in NFL annals with 8,597 yards in 10 seasons. Ranks ninth all-time, in number of 100-yard rushing games with 26 and eighth in career rushing attempts with 1,941. Also owns fifth highest lifetime total of rushing TDs, 83. Played college football at LSU.

1977 — Forrest Gregg, T (1956, 1958-'70). Also played with Dallas Cowboys (1971). Drafted No. 2 in 1956. Gregg was named All-Pro eight times (including All-Pro at both Guard and Tackle in 1965) and 9 times to the Pro Bowl. Called by Lombardi the "finest player he'd ever coached." Gregg holds the Packer record for durability with 187 consecutive games. Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers. Also served as head coach of Cleveland Browns (1975-77) and Cincinnati Bengals (1980-83). Played college football at SMU.

1977 — Bart Starr, QB (1956-'71). Drafted in 17th round in 1956. Starr became the winningest quarterback in football, directing the Packers to 6 Western Division Titles, 5 World Titles, 2 Super Bowl victories, and was named MVP in Super Bowls I and II. Starr led the League in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966 and was named to the Pro Bowl 4 times. In 1972 he coached Packer quarterbacks, Head Coach of Green Bay Packers 1975-83. He played college football at Alabama.

PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1978 — Ray Nitschke, MLB (1958-'72). Drafted in third round in 1957 after playing fullback at Illinois. Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL Title game vs NY Giants. Named to the NFL All-50 year team. All-Pro in 1964, 1965 and 1966; Pro Bowl 1965.

1980 — Herb Adderley, DB (1961-'69). Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-'72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time all-pro at cornerback. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of first six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career interceptions, ran 7 back for TDs (second highest total in NFL history).

1981 — Jim Ringo, C (1953-'63). Also played for Philadelphia (1964-'67). Seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to win all-pro honors six times, five as a Packer, and played in 10 Pro Bowls, seven as a Packer. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183). Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-'62. Traded to Philadelphia in 1964. Currently offensive line coach for New York Jets.

1981 — Willie Davis, DE (1960-'69). Also played for Cleveland (1958-'59). A 17th round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, winning all-pro honors six times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packer record for career fumble recoveries (21) and second longest consecutive game streak (162) in Green Bay annals. Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling.

1986 — Paul Hornung, HB (1957-'62, 1964-'66). One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-60-61), setting all-time league record of 176 points in 1960. Also shares league single game playoff scoring record, 19 points. All-pro selection three times and named to Pro Bowl twice. Averaged 4.1 yards per rush, caught 130 passes and kicked 66 field goals during 9-year career. Second ranking scorer in Packer history with 760 points. Bonus choice (first player selected overall) in 1957 NFL draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning Heisman Trophy in 1956.

THE PACKER STORY

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "Why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

FIRST THEY TALKED Curly's employer at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited.

THIS WAS the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A.B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

FROM THOSE MODEST and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual world-wide recognition by winning more championships (eleven) over the intervening half-century than any other team in professional football.

The fact that these achievements have come while representing a city of only 90,000 inhabitants, in competition with the country's population giants, has endeared them to the nation's football fans, many of whom are intrigued by the David vs. Goliath concept and the Packers' unique status as a publicly-owned corporation.

INEVITABLY, PROCEDURES at Packer games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system—the latter hadn't been invented yet, there weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their existence in 1919, they played on approximately the same site as the now abandoned City (East) Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemeister Park, as it was called was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street streetcar and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed, you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's half time suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built—just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred—on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

WHEN HAGEMEISTER Park was dug up in 1923 to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemeister Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides, between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

AFTER WORLD WAR II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961, the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field, 56,155 in 1970, and to 56,926 following the addition of private boxes in 1985.

The Packers' colorful saga, spanning 65 years, can be roughly divided into eight chapters. They take us from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Curly Lambeau to the present day, which finds the Packer's legendary lineman, Forrest Gregg, presiding as the ninth head coach in the team's history.

THE IRON MAN ERA—With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 or 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD—Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold, when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME—After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER—The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the rebuilding plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four-year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

MCLEAN MOVES UP—Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA—In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as head coach and general manager.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams became the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise one of the most successful. Over a nine year span as head coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

BENGTSON PERIOD—Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-1970, compiling a 20-21-1 record, and in December of 1970 resigned.

THE DEVINE DAYS—Dan Devine, one of the three most successful coaches in the nation's collegiate ranks, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January of 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first season, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of '73 and they slipped to a 5-7-2 mark. They continued their recession in '74, emerging with a 6-8 record, and Devine resigned.

BART STARR—the most successful field general in pro football history as Green Bay's quarterback of the '60s, accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager on Dec. 24, 1974. Starr, who led the Packers to five world championships from 1961 through 1967, asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere...We will earn everything else."

Although he had to settle for a 4-10 record in the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave Packer fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the 1975 season. He continued the resurgent trend in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning record since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in '79 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in Green Bay history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark) and coming within one victory of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by posting a 5-3-1 record during a strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first game of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a record-setting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head coaching duties on Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the '83 season with an 8-8 record and missed the NFL playoffs on the final week of the year.

THE PRESENT—On December 24, 1984, Starr was replaced by Forrest Gregg, a former teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in the history of the game as a player, who had maneuvered Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose Bengals' 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared, "I took this job to field a winning team... That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to bear of fruit in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight games.

Because of injury and other complications, however, the 1985 season followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a slow 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8 by winning 5 of their last 7 games.

Because of injury and other complications, however, the 1985 season followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a slow 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8 by winning 5 of their last 7 games.

Gregg, convinced the time had come to rebuild a team which had gone 8-and-8 three years in succession and was "starting to get old" at that level, made sweeping personnel changes in 1986. The young and inexperienced Packers, their task complicated by injuries to such key performers as John Anderson, Tim Lewis, Rich Moran and Mark Cannon, got off to an 0-6 start, then began to mature in mid-season and went on to finish with a 4-and-12 record.

1919 — Packers founded at meeting in editorial rooms of Press-Gazette, August 11.

1921 — J.E. Clair of Acme Packing Company granted National Football League franchise for Green Bay Packers, August 27.

PACKERS OWN OVERTIME MARK

The Green Bay Packers, who frequently have exhibited a penchant for the dramatic over the years, continue to hold the National Football League record for most overtime games played in a season. They were involved in five sudden death struggles in 1983, winning two and losing three.

Overall, the Packers have played an even dozen overtime games in regular and post-season competition, including a sudden death playoff duel with the Baltimore Colts in 1965. The latter, which saw Green Bay pull out a 13-10 decision by way of Don Chandler's 25-yard field goal at 13:39 of the overtime period, sent the Packers on their way to three consecutive championships — the only such parlay since the National Football League went to the playoff system in 1933.

The Atlanta Falcons, Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Denver Broncos, Miami Dolphins and San Diego Chargers have been involved in the most overtime games, 13 apiece, followed by the Packers with 12.

The Packers, who have won four, lost five and tied three of those 12, most recently were participants in a sudden death contest on September 30, 1984 at Tampa, a game in which the Buccaneers prevailed 30-27 via Obed Ariri's 46-yard field goal at 10:32 of the overtime.

In addition to regular and post-season play, the Packers have played one overtime game in pre-season action — against New England at Milwaukee August 30, 1975. The Patriots won that one, 20-17, on a John Smith field goal.

Capsules of the Packers' regular and post-season overtime games follow:

REGULAR SEASON

Nov. 26, 1978—Green Bay 10, Minnesota 10, at Green Bay; Packers win toss. Both teams have possession of the ball four times.

Sept. 23, 1979—Minnesota 27, Green Bay 21, at Minnesota; Vikings win toss. Kramer throws 50-yard touchdown pass to Rashad at 3:18.

Sept. 7, 1980—Green Bay 12, Chicago 6, at Green Bay; Bears win toss. Parsons punts and Nixon returns 16 yards. Five plays later, Marcol returns own blocked field goal attempt 24 yards for touchdown at 6:00.

Oct. 12, 1980—Green Bay 14, Tampa Bay 14, at Tampa Bay; Packers win toss. Teams trade punts twice. Lee returns second Tampa Bay punt to Green Bay 42. Dickey completes three passes to Buccaneers' 18, where Birney's 36-yard field goal attempt is wide right as time expires.

Dec. 19, 1982—Baltimore 20, Green Bay 20, at Baltimore; Packers win toss. K. Anderson intercepts Dickey's first-down pass and returns to Packers' 42. Miller's 44-yard field goal attempt blocked by G. Lewis. Teams trade punts before Stenerud's 47-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Teams trade punts again before time expires in Colts possession.

Sept. 4, 1983—Green Bay 41, Houston 38, at Houston; Packers win toss. Stenerud kicks 42-yard field goal at 5:55.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1987

For the second year in a row, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1986 with the exception that larger monitors will be used by Replay Officials. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 38 reversals for an average of one reversal in each six games. There were three other rulings (clarification of rules) by Replay Officials.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a “no frills” approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeling; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.

Old Style . . . America's best brewed premium beer.

Old Style is the pick of Wisconsin beer drinkers for three very good reasons. Sparkling pure artesian spring water. Full kraeusening. And natural carbonation.
